Prelude

Introit "This Is the Day"

"This is the day, this is the day that the Lord has made, that the Lord has made; we will rejoice, we will rejoice and be glad in it, and be glad in it. This is the day that the Lord has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. This is the day, this is the day that the Lord has made. ADORATION OF GOD

*Call to Worship

Leader: Let all who would proclaim God's Word gather now for worship!
People: We live in a hostile world with many who would silence the gospel.
Leader: But the Lord will not be defeated, and His Word will be heard.
People: Then let us commit our lives to proclaiming His mercy and love.

CONFESSION BEFORE GOD

Prayer of Confession:

Heavenly Father, so often we have acted as though we are eternal and not responsible for our days. We act as though there will always be a tomorrow in which we can get around doing Your will for our lives and that will be "soon enough" for all those things we know we should be about in Your kingdom. Forgive us, Lord, and help us live our lives today. In Christ we pray, Amen.

REPORT NUMBER TWO, THE COMMITTEE ON THE MINISTRY
To The Presbytery of East Tennessee meeting in session at Loudon Cumberland Presbyterian Church, October 6, 2012

This Committee interviewed Josephina Sanchez-Camargo in April and again on October 6 in regard to her readiness for ordination. She was received as a candidate for ministry in October 2010 and was licensed in April 2012.

Josephina attended the Biblical Seminary of Colombia in Medellin, the seminary that trains Cumberland Presbyterian pastors in Colombia. She did not seek ordination after seminary training because of her background in a Baptist tradition. She is pursuing a masters degree in Christian education at Gordon-Conwell Seminary. She has completed the required Cumberland Presbyterian studies in the Program of Alternate Studies.

Josephina has been serving as associate at Casa de Fe Church since March 2010 and that congregation is extending a call to her to continue in that position as an ordained minister. Her husband, Richardo Franco, is the pastor of this church.

Recommendation: That upon satisfactory examination by Presbytery, Josephina Sanchez-Camargo be ordained to the ministry of word and sacrament during this meeting of presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,

Committee on the Ministry

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

A note to say thank you for the opportunity of representing our Presbytery at the 182nd General Assembly held in Florence, Alabama on June 17-22, 2012.

I made every effort to attend all of the meetings by the different branches of the Denomination (Children's Home, Bethel University, Memphis Theological Seminary, etc). I observed with great interest how well all of our institutions are being used for the Lord.

The worship services were very worshipful and filled with praise. The business and committee meetings were very informative. (I served on the Higher Education Committee and was blessed by the good reports.)

Overall, I was blessed by fellow Cumberland Presbyterians. The old saying that I heard from the late Scott Johnson many years ago: "Fe Fe Fi Fi Fo Fo Fum – I never met a Cumberland I didn't love some" is certainly true.

Thank you,

It was truly an honor and privilege to get to attend General Assembly in Florence, AL this summer representing the Presbytery of East Tennessee as a youth delegate. I served on the C.P. Children's Home and Historical Foundation Committees. I learned a great deal and feel this experience has helped me to better understand the church as a whole and has made me feel more connected to the C.P. church and to the God we serve.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for this wonderful rewarding experience, for the new friends I have made, the cool stuff we YADS got to do together and for allowing me to be apart of the history of the C.P. church.

To: Presbytery of East Tennessee, meeting at the Loudon CP Church, Oct. 6, 2012

From: J. David Hester, Clergy Commissioner to the 2012 General Assembly.

The 182nd General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church met June 17-22 in Florence Alabama. The General Assembly last met in Florence in 1961 – and elected Elder Ollie McClung Moderator.

Opening roll call registered 47 ministers, 43 elders, and 21 Youth Advisory Delegates present. YADs Jessica Franklin and Abraham Marquez from this Presbytery were present.

Dr. Robert Rush of Trinity Presbytery was elected Moderator (by acclamation) and Rev. Troy Green of Columbia Presbytery was named vice-Moderator.

Morning devotionals were given by Elder Akimsa Nakano of Japan Presbytery and YAD Anna Shepherd of West Tennessee Presbytery. (I baptized Anna as an infant at Colonial Church, Memphis).

I served on the Ministry Council/Communications/Discipleship committee, attending all committee meetings. I responded to every roll call and was present in all GA sessions.

Wonderful worship services were experienced by all of us, including great music. Messages were delivered by Moderator Don Tabor, (our own) T.J. Malinoski, Dr. Mitchell Walker, CPCA. This was followed by an impressive service of Holy Communion.

From General Assembly reports I gleaned two items which I feel should be reported to the Presbytery:

1 – "Become familiar with 'Step Out!' via CP website – and communicate to your congregations."

2 – "Constitution 4.6 amended to read: 'The Session may designate two elders, either of whom, when authorized by the Presbytery, may administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper to the congregation.'"

Thank you for allowing me to serve as Commissioner to this General Assembly. This was the eleventh time for me to serve as a Commissioner.

To the Presbytery of East Tennessee:

Thank you for the opportunity to attend General Assembly in Florence, Alabama, June 17-22, 2012, as an Elder Delegate from the East Tennessee Presbytery. As a member of the Committee on Stewardship/Elected Officials, I had the opportunity to learn more about how the church operates from a financial standpoint and gained a greater appreciation for how important OUO (Our United Outreach) contributions are in supporting the work of the denomination and the resources available to churches. In addition on Thursday at the Business meeting, I was able to see how all of the committee work came together, was discussed and voted on by Minister and Elder delegates from all over the world. However, the best part of General Assembly was the worship and the feeling of connection with other people there – serving One God and working together for the good of His Church. Each day began with a worship service or devotional and several days ended with a worship service. The worship services early in the week included music by Bethel University's Renaissance: Vocal Authority.

Sincerely,

Marianne F. Sharp

To: Presbytery of East Tennessee:

I would like to thank the Presbytery for the opportunity to attend the 182nd General Assembly in Florence, Alabama, as elder delegate. It was my first time to attend as a commissioner and it proved to be a wonderful uplifting and educational experience.

I served on the Children's Home/Historical Foundation Committee. Rev. Kevin Henson and Ms. Patricia Long reported on the Children's Home, which is doing a lot of good work, not only for children, but for single parent families. They also said that although they are operating in the black at this time, they always need donations.

We also heard from Ms. Susan Knight Gore and Rev. Tommy Jobe about the Historical Foundation. They told of churches losing their session records in home fires or floods. They were strongly recommending that all churches send there session records to the Foundation for storage. There they would be available for everyone who is interested in researching their heritage. I also learned of the 1810 Circle, which is a means for the Foundation to meet expense. For $25.00 yearly donation, anyone can become a member.

I really enjoyed the special services that were held all week; I especially enjoyed the message given by Mr. Akimasa Nakano, from the Japan Presbytery. His scripture was I Corinthians 13:13, which is one of my favorite versus. The title of the message was "Power in Weakness". He spoke of the tsunami and all the devastation they had last year. How people had lost hope and faith, because of the disaster. But their faith and hope were restored by the love of God shown to them through the volunteers who came to help.

Once again, thank you for this wonderful opportunity.

To Presbytery of East Tennessee:

I thank you for the opportunity and privilege to represent the Presbytery of East Tennessee as Elder Commissioner to the 182nd General Assembly in Florence, Ala. during the week of June 17-22, 2012.

I served on the Judiciary Committee. I attended all sessions of the committee and voted on all issues that the committee was charged to consider.

During the week I experienced excellent and very meaningful worship services (including music provided by the Bethel University Renaissance Choir), and programs and meals for the various agencies of our denomination.

Again I thank the Presbytery for the privilege of being Elder Commissioner to the 182nd General Assembly.

Yours in Christ

Report of Elder Commissioner
Elder Terry Murray
Fairview Cumberland Presbyterian Church
2012 General Assembly

It was my honor and privilege to attend the 182nd General Assembly held in Florence, Alabama. This was my first trip to General Assembly and the experience was an everlasting reminder of God's love and works performed by everyone present and those we represent as Cumberland Presbyterians. The fellowship was evident from the beginning at the barbecue with the uplifting entertainment provided by Bethel's "Vocal Authority" hosted by the Springfield Cumberland Presbyterian Church in neighboring Rogersville, Alabama.

I attended the pre-assembly workshop "Meeting People Where They Are...in the Transitions of Life". We were reminded our lives are ever changing with each stage of life, for example; school, graduation, career (career changes), marriage (new extended families joined by marriage), children, aging, etc. Therefore, we are forever meeting new people/friends and we influence and are being influenced by these transitions. Whether we realize it or not, we are "Meeting People Where They Are".

While at General Assembly I served on the "Chaplains/Missions/Pastoral Development" board. The office of the General Assembly shows we currently have 913 total Cumberland Presbyterian clergy, with 121 (or 13%) being women. These numbers show we are gaining a strong women's ministry throughout our denomination. Also, we have 33 women Licentiates and 21 women candidates. Our clergy, military and non-military, all need and deserve our utmost support.

The OUO budget received much attention during the assembly. The yearly budget is falling short and with 700 plus CP churches and with 266 not contributing, it is a difficult issue to resolve. After much discussion, the elders and youth delegates voted to hire a fund-raising employee at a cost of $79,000.00/year. Prior to General Assembly, each OUO department head agreed to a 3% cut in their budget to pay for this person. If each CP church would work on their OUO giving, this fund raising employee position could be eliminated.

Thank you again for the opportunity to serve the Presbytery of East Tennessee.

Mercy Cumberland Presbyterian Church

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ from the Presbytery of East Tennessee.
I like to express my gratitude to my presbytery for have chosen me to represent you as a youth delegate in the 182th General Assembly. This was a great experience to serve for the first time to the General Assembly in Florence, Alabama. I participated in the committee of Theology and Social Concerns; I attended all the meetings that went on my committee. I enjoyed all the worship services in GA and as well with the youth activities. I am also very thankful to all the help and financial aid that I received in order to have had the best experience. I met some very important people to our denomination as well as other youth delegates whom well always are my friends and brothers and sisters in Christ. I had a blast at General Assembly and hope I can to serve another opportunity. I thank you once again and may God bless you.

Sincerely,

Abraham Márquez

Report of the Committee on Theology and Social Concerns to the Presbytery of East Tennessee In Session October 6, 2012 Loudon CPC

One year ago, the Presbytery of East Tennessee defined the purpose of the Committee on Theology and Social Concerns as follows:

> To address any theological topics or issues of social concern delegated to the committee by the Presbytery of East Tennessee, the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, etc; and to formally suggest topics for study to the Presbytery of East Tennessee; and to formally suggest to the Presbytery of East Tennessee programs to address such topics in hopes of serving the needs of regions and communities that the Presbytery of East Tennessee serves.

Having been informed of this general purpose, the Committee on Theology and Social Concerns proposed that the Presbytery of East Tennessee host a pair of workshops on worship in August 2012. Presbytery approved this idea at its April 2012 meeting, and two workshops were held, one at the Greeneville church on August 18th and the second at the Knoxville First church on August 25th. The workshops were promoted via email and hard copy letters to session clerks with flyers attached, and phone calls to session clerks and ministers.

In Greeneville, the participation included thirty overall attendees, counting committee members. Those thirty attendees represented eleven congregations. In Knoxville, overall attendance was twenty-two participants, committee members included, and the attendees represented seven different congregations.

The workshop was devised as follows: a brief presentation on the roots of worship in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church began the day, followed by an hour and a half small group session in which participants rotated through workstations devoted to prayer in worship, music in worship, the message in worship, and the liturgy of worship. Lunch was provided, after which participants reconvened in small groups to plan a worship service based on their vision of what a "normal" CP worship service looks like. The day ended with a large group session in which participants could share significant discussion points from their small group session.

Overall, feedback to the workshops seems to have been positive. The feedback that was less positive seemed to center on desires that the workshop might have been something it was not intended or envisioned to be, namely more centrally engaged with forms of worship outside of our congregations' current worship practices (such as contemporary worship practices and "how to implement them"), how worship might attract newcomers/grow the church, etc.

Such ideas will be taken up by the committee in future meetings.

Dear Rev. Longmire:

The Commission to Ordain and Install Martha Marquez consisting of Leonard Turner, presiding chair; Rev. Ken Phillips; Elder Mrs. Silvia Guzman and Rev. Ricardo Franco met on Sunday, April 15, 2012 at 6:30 p.m. The service was called to order by Pastor Turner and opened in prayer by Rev. Kevin Henson of the Cumberland Presbyterian Children's Home. We were led in worship by the Praise Team from Iglesia Presbiteriana Cumberland Misericordia (Mercy Church). Rev. Ricardo Franco, of Melrose, Massachusetts preached.

Pastor Turner spoke briefly on what it means to be set apart and ordained. Rev. Ken Phillips read the questions to Martha Marquez and Elder Sylvia Guzman prayed. We duly ordained, by the laying on of hands by pastors and elders, Martha Marquez into the gospel ministry as directed by the Presbytery.

A session meeting was then called by Mercy Church for the purpose of calling Martha Marquez as Associate Pastor of Iglesia Presbiteriana Cumberland Misericordia. Rev. Ken Phillips read the questions to the minister. Rev. Alfonso Marquez asked questions to the elders, Elder Guzman read questions to the congregation and Pastor Turner declared that Rev. Martha Marquez had been regularly called as Associate Pastor of this association.

Elder Jim Greene, of Union Cumberland Presbyterian Church, closed the service in prayer, including blessing over the meal. We were served a wonderful Hispanic dinner.

Thank you for allowing us to serve in this capacity and we would ask that the Commission be dissolved since we fulfilled our obligation.

Sincerely,

Leonard Turner

Report of the Board of Finance
Report #1

To the Presbytery of East Tennessee in session with the Loudon Cumberland Presbyterian Church on October 6, 2012.

1. The Presbyterial treasurer reported that after the April meeting of Presbytery, churches that were in arrears with their allocation and insurance obligations caught those up. The Board of Finance wishes to thank those churches for paying their outstanding bills.

2. The auditor, Adams and Plucker, C.P.A., made several recommendations to the Board that were presented to the Coordinating Committee. Additionally, the auditor in its Report on Agreed-Upon Procedures identified a concern that churches are not being held accountable for their actions, particularly not paying their allocations and other obligations.

3. The Board discussed the continued drain on the Presbytery's general fund reserves over the past 15-20 years and that those funds have now been depleted. It was recognized that Presbytery needs to build that reserve back up.

   Recommendation 1: Beginning at the end of 2012 budget year and at the end of each year thereafter, any money from a particular fund left over at the end of the year will go back into the general fund's reserve account.

4. The Board discussed the budget and any additional requests that were made following the April meeting of Presbytery.

   Recommendation 2: The 2013 budget of $172,997.57 be adopted.

   Recommendation 3: That $12,000.00 of the budget be taken from restricted funds for new church development.

   Recommendation 4: The allocations to the churches in support of the budget in the amount of $160,997.57 be approved.

Respectfully Submitted,
Board of Finance

Report of the Board of Finance
Report #2

To the Presbytery of East Tennessee in session with the Loudon Cumberland Presbyterian Church on October 6, 2012.

1. The Board of Finance discussed the strong opinions expressed by the members of Presbytery regarding the supplementing of health insurance costs. The Presbytery of East Tennessee has long struggled with the issue of health insurance for pastors and other employees and participants in the plan and it continues to be a drain on both Presbytery's personnel and financial resources.

2. The Board recognizes that not all pastors and church employees in the Presbytery will be enrolled in the denomination's health insurance program.

3. In an effort to streamline the process and to make churches participating in the program more accountable for payment of premiums, the Board recommends the following.

Recommendation:

a. The health insurance arrangement agreed upon by the pastor and the local church session shall be included in the pastor's written contract. This contract is subject to approval by the Presbytery.

b. The Denominational Health Insurance Plan available through the Presbytery should be considered as a possible health insurance alternative. However, enrollment in the Denominational Plan is not mandatory if another plan provides adequate coverage and is agreeable to both the pastor and the church session.

c. The pastor's contract should clearly define the church's responsibility for paying health insurance premiums. The church session shall be responsible for notifying their pastor in advance of the due date if the church is unable to pay their portion of the monthly premium. Failure to pay the premium in a timely manner will result in the health insurance company cancelling the coverage.

d. Any support from the Presbytery for assisting individual churches with their pastor's health or disability insurance premiums shall be recommended by the contract review committee or board and approved by a vote of Presbytery.

e. All delinquent health or disability insurance premiums owed to the Presbytery will be included in the following year's budget and allocated to the churches of the presbytery for payment.

Respectfully Submitted,
Board of Finance

Report of the Board of Finance
Report #3 -- Amended

To the Presbytery of East Tennessee in session with the Loudon Cumberland Presbyterian Church on October 6, 2012.

1. The Board of Finance recognizes and wishes to thank the New Hope congregation for their $500 gift to be applied to the Misercordia pastor's health insurance deficit.

2. The Presbyterial Treasurer reported that Misericordia Church continues to be an unbudgeted, added expense for the Presbytery. The church has not paid any obligation to include Our United Outreach, Presbyterial allocations, or pastor's insurance since July 2011.

3. For the three year period of September 2009 to September 2012, Misericordia Church has received support from the Presbytery of East Tennessee in the amount of $89,789.62, or an average of $29,929.87 per year, or $11,930 over the average budgeted amount for the past three years.

   Statement 4 has been amended following the payment of $ 5,000.00 toward the health insurance deficit by the Misericordia congregation at the October 6, 2012 meeting of presbytery. The changes are shown in italic format.

4. The total amount due for health and disability insurance premiums for Misericordia Church from August 2011 to December 2012 will be $ 24,191.61 if no further payments are made. The Board of Finance needs permission to pay these insurance premiums outside the 2012 budget.

Recommendation: Authorize the Presbyterial Treasurer to take up to $30,000 out of Tri-Cities New Church Development account to pay for the health premiums for the Misericordia Church as his discretion.

Respectfully Submitted,
Board of Finance

Report of the Board of Finance
Report #4

To the Presbytery of East Tennessee in session with the Loudon Cumberland Presbyterian Church on October 6, 2012.

1. The Board discussed the how New Church Development funds are being used by the Presbytery.

2. The Board recognizes that periodically funds may need to be appropriated from the New Church Development funds to mitigate an emergency situation. The Board also understands that such depletion of funds removes funding for new church growth and support for new churches being sponsored by the Presbytery.

Recommendation #1: That Standing Rules be changed under Section 6, Item E, Presbyterial Shares, to include any monies appropriated from New Church Development to be used for any reason other than new church development must be reimbursed from the Presbyterial budget the following budget year.

3. The Board discussed the importance of maintaining a reserve fund for emergency situations and how that translates into the Presbytery being good planners and stewards of its financial resources.

Recommendation #2: That Standing Rules be changed under Section 6, Item E, Presbyterial Shares, to include that Presbytery keeps a reserve fund equal to 15% of the total budget.

Respectfully Submitted,
Board of Finance

On April 22 Dr. J. David Hester went to the congregation and gave an overview of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. The following week the congregation heard from the Evangelical Presbyterian Church and later from the Evangelical Covenant Order of Presbyterians (ECO).

On June 16 we were advised that the congregation had voted to leave the PCUSA and align with the ECO group.

Total local offerings for 6 months - $4,980.61(191.56 per week)

Presbytery Board of Finance requested this Board to consider "including the appropriate request for funding their budget" for the Mercy Church. We have studied this situation but are not ready to offer a recommendation.

Casa de fe y Alabanza (reports from January – June, 2012)

The $12,000 annual funding from this presbytery was approved for 3 years (2010 – 2011 – 2012). This will expire Dec. 31.

We feel that this must continue for the current time, giving the local church and this Board time to evaluate the situation.

Recommendation 3: That Presbytery authorize the continuance of $12,000 for pastoral assistance for Casa de fe y for 2013. These funds would continue to come from the Clinch View New Church Development account.

Korea

We have had difficulty with reports from Korea. We continue to rely on the Korean Council and Justin Choi for reports.

We have been advised that the Seoul First CP church Pastor has resigned effective Aug. 31.

Our contacts with Lynn Thomas (Global Cross Cultural Missions leader for the CP Missions Ministry Team) indicate that there are some tensions between the Council and the Korean First CP Church.

In mid-September the Missions Ministry Team has a consultant from the USA flying to S. Korea to work with the Korean Council and the First Church.

We assume we will be given a report on this venture when he returns.

Recommendation 4: In order for representation from the Korea Church to attend this presbytery at least annually, we recommend that $2500 be placed in the 2013 budget for this purpose.

5) Moderators – The Board submits the following record of Presbytery-appointed Moderators and the churches they serve:

Bethesda – Moderator,Tammy Green; Rocky Johnson, a Southern Baptist Minister, is serving as pastor.

East Tennessee Presbytery
Board of Missions
and
Presbytery Stated Clerk

Greetings,

The Missions Ministry Team became aware of tensions within the CP work in South Korea in August 2012. We began to investigate. We had already planned a workshop event in South Korea to be led by Rev. Sung-In Park (a Korean CP pastor in Austin, Texas). We asked Rev. Park to investigate what was going on while he was in Korea and report back to us. Rev. Park traveled to South Korea and attended a meeting of the Korean Council, and met with various CP leaders and churches while in Korea. While in South Korea Rev. Park reported to us what he was learning, and gave us a final report upon his return to the USA. Staff of the MMT has met with our Korean consultants and based on what we know from South Korea and advice from consultants we would like to ask East Tennessee Presbytery to approve the following recommendations. We apologize that this has come to you so soon before your presbytery meeting, but we feel this needs immediate attention.

Recommendation 1
That the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church of South Korea be instructed to have a congregational meeting as soon as possible and reconstitute the church's session by electing, ordaining and installing elders, preferably no less than 3 elders.

Recommendation 2
That Rev. Keum Taek Lim be named the moderator of First Cumberland Presbyterian Church's session to serve as moderator until the church has an ordained CP pastor.

Recommendation 3
That the SumKim Presbyterian Church be removed from the roll of CP Churches of East Tennessee Presbytery, because they have joined a different denomination and have left the CP council of churches in South Korea.

Rev. Byung-Jae Choe was the pastor of SumKim Presbyterian Church and he has resigned from this church. He has stated he plans to start a new independent church in a city some 50 miles from Seoul with some of the members that left SumKim Presbyterian Church. We are not making any recommendation with respect to Rev. Choe, but we are unclear about his actions and future plans as a CP minister in South Korea.

Respectfully,

Lynn L. Thomas

RECOMMENDATION RELATED TO MERCY CHURCH AND THE PRESBYTERY'S MINISTRY IN LENOIR CITY

On behalf of the presbytery, that the board of missions prayerfully consider whether to relate to the Mercy church as a mission among the Hispanic community or as a congregation, with the following distinctions in mind:

1. If a mission of the presbytery, then the presbytery would take primary responsibility for funding the work among Hispanics in Lenoir City, including staff salaries and benefits. As a mission, Mercy would be responsible for communicating directly to churches within the presbytery about its work, and would seek to engage congregations in mission work in the area, such as leading Vacation Bible Schools, doing service projects in the area, creating youth internships, or whatever ministries to which the Spirit calls. Most of Mercy's expenses would be a part of the regular presbytery budget.
2. If the presbytery relates to Mercy primarily as a congregation, then the congregation would move toward self-sufficiency, and the board of missions would outline a plan to make this happen.

A few notes: If the board should recommend that we relate to Mercy as a mission, it would in no way change their official status as a congregation within the presbytery. Also, a s the board discerns this relationship, they should do so prayerfully and in concert with the current staff and session of the Mercy church.

The board will report to the April 2013 meeting of presbytery, and will make recommendations no later than the October 2013 meeting.

[I make the recommendation so we can

- Be proactive rather than reactive
- Have the healthiest relationship possible with Mercy church, and hopefully the relationship God wants
- Deal with our concerns as a whole body in an informed, intentional, Spirit-led way]

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE MINISTRY
to the Presbytery of East Tennessee meeting at Loudon Cumberland Presbyterian Church October 6, 2012

I. Licentiates under the care of Presbytery:

A. Byrd Broyles: A member of Philadelphia Church, Byrd was received as a candidate in October 2005. He is a graduate of East Tennessee State University and is employed as a special education teacher in the Johnson City school system. Byrd participated in the Program of Alternate Studies in 2009 and 2010 and again in 2012. He is presently serving Philadelphia Church. The committee last interviewed him in February 2012. His mentor is Rex Brown and his COM contact is Jim Carter.

B. Justin Choi: Justin is a member of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Korea. Justin was received as a candidate in October 2006 and licensed in October 2009. Justin was awarded the M.Div. degree from Memphis Theological Seminary in May 2010. He and his wife returned to Korea during the summer 2010. Earlier this year, Justin and his wife were blessed with the birth of a daughter. He has begun his 20 month required military service during which he is allowed to live at home. He has been working with the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Korea since October 2010 under the guidance of the Korean Council. He is able to serve as translator of communications between the Council and the presbytery. We await word from the Korean Council saying that Justin is ready for ordination. Carolyn Harmon is his COM contact.

C. Sean Choi: Received as a candidate in October 2008, he was licensed in October 2010. Sean was granted the M.Div. degree by Memphis Theological Seminary in May 2012. He attends the Korean CP Church of Memphis where he participates in various leadership roles; he also takes part in the life of Faith Church, Memphis. His present plan is to remain in the United States until April 2013 and to return to Korea at that time for an extended stay with family. In September 2011, Sean and his wife, Ji, welcomed the birth of twin daughters. He would welcome a call to full time service in the United States in either a Korean language church or an English-speaking congregation. His young age makes difficult his acceptance in the Korean community as an ordained minister, as the cultural expectation among Korean Christians is that ordained ministers will be older than Sean. We are working with him and with leaders of West Tennessee Presbytery as he continues to move toward ordination. The Committee interviewed Sean in February 2012. His Committee contact is Jack Watson.

D. Ronald Pickard: A member of Talbott Church, Ron was received as a candidate in October 2007 and licensed in October 2009. He completed the Program of Alternate Studies in 2010 and is seeking a call to full time ministry. Meanwhile, Ron continues to fill pulpits when invited and would welcome a call to serve more fully within the presbytery. His contact with the COM is Tammy Greene.

E. Josephina Sanchez-Camargo: Josephina was received as a candidate for ministry in October 2010 and licensed in April 2012. She is a member of Casa de Fe Church where her husband, Ricardo Franco, is pastor and she serves as his assistant. Josephina attended the Biblical Seminary of Colombia in Medellin, the seminary that trains Cumberland Presbyterian pastors in Colombia, but did not seek ordination after seminary training because of her background in the Baptist tradition. She is pursuing an M.A.R. degree at Gordon-Conwell Seminary and has completed studies in the required Cumberland Presbyterian studies in the Program of Alternate Studies. Casa de Fe Church has affirmed its call for her to continue as associate pastor of that congregation. Her mentor is Milton Ortiz, and her COM contact is Carolyn Harmon.

F. Anna Sweet: Anna was received under care of presbytery in April 2010 and licensed in April 2012. She is a member of Beaver Creek Church and has enrolled in her first year at Memphis Theological Seminary following graduation from Bethel University in May 2012. She is living in McKenzie and continues serving as supply preacher for Mill Creek Church in West Tennessee Presbytery. Her mentor is Gwen Roddye, and her COM contact is Jack Watson.

II. Candidates under the care of Presbytery:

A. Manuel Job Baldevia: He is a member of Iloilo Cumberland Mission Church in Iloilo City, Philippines. The committee interviewed him on March 14, 2011, via OOVOO video connection. He was received as a candidate by presbytery in April 2011 via OOVOO. He has a strong family background in the United Church of Christ in the Philippines and has been providing leadership to Pavia Church, a satellite mission of Iloilo Church. He holds a B. S. degree in Business Administration from the University of the Philippines in the Visayas and has had varied work experiences including 15 years as a CPA. He completed a three-year course from the Bible Training Centre for Pastors in Tucker, Georgia, in May 2010, and participated in PAS classes taught by the Rev. Iwao Satoh from Japan Presbytery. His mentor is Daniel Jang, and the Committee member assigned him is Jimmy Rolen.

B. Whitney Brown: Received as a candidate in April 2008, Whitney is a graduate of Maryville College and received the M.A.R. degree from Memphis Theological Seminary in May 2011. She is a member of Beaver Creek Church where she has completed a one-year part time internship in young adult ministries. She is working part-time with Oak Ridge Church at present and is also serving as part-time coordinator for presbytery's Board of Christian Education. The committee last interviewed Whitney in May 2011. At present, she is not seeking ordination. Her mentor is Thomas Sweet, and her Committee contact is Nick Coker.

C. Sun Man Choi (Ezra): Ezra was received as a candidate in October 2010. A member of Korea First Church, he and his wife Priscilla are living in Memphis where he has completed two years study at Memphis Theological Seminary. During the past summer, they returned to Korea where they visited with family and friends. He was later enrolled in a Seminary extension course during the 2012 summer Program of Alternate Studies. He has attended various churches in the Memphis area and is involved in the work of First Church, Olive Branch, MS. His mentors are Jim Ratliff, pastor of First Church, and John Sweigart, member of Arkansas Presbytery and former missionary liaison to Korea. The COM contact is Jim Carter.

Recommendation 1: That following a satisfactory meeting with this Committee during this presbytery meeting, Ezra Choi be licensed.

D. Aaron Craig: A member of Young's Chapel Church, Aaron was received as a candidate in April 2008. The Committee interviewed Aaron during the spring 2012 meeting of presbytery. He is currently enrolled at Bethel University. Aaron and his wife welcomed their first child earlier this year. He anticipates transferring his church membership to Shiloh Church, McKenzie, TN, and then presenting himself as a candidate for ministry in West Tennessee Presbytery. Thomas Sweet is Aaron's mentor; his COM contact is Joe Malloy.

Recommendation 2: That when this Committee and the Stated Clerk receive confirmation that Aaron Craig has transferred his membership to Shiloh Church, his name be dropped as a candidate and that he be commended as a candidate to West Tennessee Presbytery.

E. Miguel Gonzales: Miguel is a member of Mercy Church, where his responsibilities include directing music and teaching Sunday school. He was received as a candidate in October 2009. The committee interviewed him in November 2011. Miguel is participating in the Program of Alternate Studies with the committee's approval, taking classes offered in Spanish. Miguel was married in October 2010 and became a father during the past year. This Committee anticipates recommending his licensing early in 2013. Alfonso Marquez is Miguel's mentor, and Nick Coker is the COM contact.

F. Gary Hamby: Gary was received as a candidate in April 2010. A member of Union Church, he has a bachelor's degree in business from Maryville College and has been approved to attend Asbury Seminary. He lives in Lenoir City and has worked in the field of electronics. Due to family responsibilities, Gary has been unable to pursue seminary work. He has, however, indicated his desire to continue his candidacy. If he is able to attend this meeting, the Committee will interview him during the meeting. His mentor is Leonard Turner; his COM contact is Joe Malloy.

G. Salvador Mejia: Salvador is a member of Mercy Church where he is active in various aspects of church leadership. He was received as a candidate in October 2009 and is attending PAS classes at various locations as they are offered in Spanish. The committee interviewed him in November 2011 and anticipates recommending that he be licensed early in 2013. His mentor is Alfonso Marquez, and his COM contact is Joe Malloy.

III. Others

Rocky Johnson: An ordained Southern Baptist minister, Rocky has served Bethesda Church more than ten years. He has worked in cooperation with the committee toward having his ordination recognized by presbytery. Rocky participated in all three blocks of the Program of Alternate Studies in 2009 and has completed the required classes in Cumberland Presbyterian studies. We commend him for his faithful service to Bethesda Church and for his ongoing promotion of the presbytery and denomination. The Committee is convinced that he has become a Cumberland Presbyterian in heart and commitment. His COM contact is Tammy Greene.

Recommendation 3: That presbytery recognize Rocky Johnson's ordination and receive him as a full member of presbytery.

Recommendation 4: That the following commission be elected to install Rocky Johnson as pastor of Bethesda Church on a date to be announced:

IV. Provisional Ministers: In October 2010, presbytery received Alexander A. Duyac, Jr. as a provisional member. Our primary contact with him is through Daniel Jang, a member of presbytery who is a missionary from Korea in the Philippines. Jang reports that Duyac continues to work with him and recommends that presbytery receive him as a full member. The Korean Council affirms this recommendation.

Recommendation 5: That presbytery accept the recommendation of Daniel Jang and the Korean Council and move Alexander A. Duyac, Jr., from provisional status to full membership in presbytery.

V. Meetings and Membership

The Committee met on August 11, 2012. Thomas Sweet is the committee chair and James McGuire is secretary. The terms of James McGuire, Tammy Greene, and Jimmy Rolen expire at this meeting. All of them are eligible to serve again.

VI. Continuing Education

General Assembly requires ministers to complete six units of continuing education every three years on a cycle that began in 2000. One CEU credit is earned for every approved ten hours of instruction/study. Ministers are responsible for providing information regarding CEUs they have earned to the Committee on the Ministry.

Opportunities to earn CEU credit include the January 22-24, 2013, Ministers Conference. Credit is also available to those who attended the workshop on worship provided in August 2012 by presbytery's Committee on Theology and Social Concerns.

CEU's can be tracked on the presbytery web page. Please contact James McGuire with any additions or corrections.

Camp Chilhowee Report V

Board of Directors

To: The Presbytery of East Tennessee in session with Loudon Cumberland Presbyterian Church on October 6, 2012 in Loudon, TN

We had two official meetings since the last meeting of Presbytery.

Camp Chilhowee 2012

This years Junior Camp was our largest with 33 total Campers. Six C. P. churches were represented from the presbytery, with one C. P. church from outside the presbytery along with four other churches also being represented. Twenty-eight were C. P kids and four were friends from other denominations visiting. The lesson for Jr. Camp was centered around the life of Jesus and how he is our great problem solver. Nicole Crisp from Loudon C. P. Church was the director with Nick Coker helping out. The days were filled with Bible study, Games, recreation time, and arts and Crafts. We were also blessed this week with two professions of faith. God is truly at work here.

The Junior High group had a total of 26 campers. Nine C. P. churches were represented from the presbytery and two from other churches. Twenty-five of the campers were C. P. and 2 were friends from other denominations visiting. The lesson for Junior High was based on the movie Soul Surfer. The days were filled with large group bible study and small group study question and answer time. The campers also had the chance to play Psalty's games, swim, and do arts & crafts and Tye- Dye pillow case making. The directors for Junior High were Amy Brandon and Patrick Wilkerson both from Beaver Creek C. P. Church.

The Senior High group had a total of 27 campers. Seven C. P. churches were represented from the presbytery and five other churches. Twenty-one of the campers were C. P. and 6 were friends from other denominations visiting. The lessons for Senior High were also based on the teachings of Francis Chan entitled Surrender: developing Character to Stand Strong. The days were filled with large group bible study and video then small group study question and answer time. This age was more in depth than the Junior High group. The campers also had the chance to play Psalty's games and enjoy swimming, arts& crafts and Tye Dye pillow case making. The director was Nick Coker from Loudon.

Recommendations:

1: Due to the fact that the money collected for camp fees goes through two people before returning to the Camp Chilhowee board we are making the recommendation that all money collected for camp fees will be done by our board treasure and deposited directly into our account. This will make it easier for us to disperse funds when and where needed at the time of need instead of having to wait. We will also send the report as always to the presbytery for audit. Our treasurer is bonded.

Support Camp

2: We as members of the camp Chilhowee board would encourage all churches to get on board and show support to kids that want to attend camp, by setting up a fund to help pay for these fees. At the current time only a hand full of churches pay half of the camp fees. This is an important part of who we are as Cumberland Presbyterians. Your support in the camping ministry is greatly appreciated and greatly needed. We have seen over the past decade some kids come through camp that have never had the chance to experience anything like the relationships with new friends and God that they receive from just one week at camp. We have even seen long term relationships form from camp as well as those deciding to pursue the ministry field. We all need this time with God. It's easy to help out. Set aside one Sunday a month as Camp Sunday and collect a special offering to help send kids to camp, or use part of your Sunday school offering. It doesn't matter how you do this, just don't let kids be left out because they can't afford the full amount to attend camp.

Camp Fees set for 2013 at Camp Chilhowee

The fees charged at camp Chilhowee are set by the camp Chilhowee board and are as follows: We will see an increase for the 2013 camping season due to the cost of maintenance and food prices going up.

Junior camp will be at a cost of $120.00 per camper.

Junior high and Senior high camps will be at a cost of $140.00 per camper.

Also, there has never been a late fee charged at camp Chilhowee and that will remain intact at this current time.

There will be a donation request in the amount of $20.00 or whatever the child may be able to pay to help with the cost of extra expenses that we may incur, but not limited to, guest speaker or musicians, and recreation needs. This will come straight to the camp board also. The donation is not going to be mandatory.

Respectfully submitted,
