GUIDELINES

This week we will be living together as a family in a Christian community. Family life is based on love, trust, support and spending time together which creates a warm and caring atmosphere. Each of us as a member of the family is very important. In order to create this atmosphere, please, read, respect, and abide by these rules.

1. Arrive and leave at the appropriate times.
2. Attend the camp of your grade level.
3. Requests to be in a room/cabin with someone will be honored if possible. This request will need to be made before camp.
4. Your presence is important. Be on time to all scheduled activities, including meals.
5. You are important. Please participate in all camp activities.
6. This is a Church Camp. Dress appropriately. Dress will be monitored.
NO Short Shorts. NO Inappropriate Swimwear.
7. Be good stewards of the camp facilities. Keep things clean and do not deface the property. (This includes writing on beds, walls, etc.).
8. Separate housing is provided for males and females. In respect of person's rights to privacy, males are not allowed in female rooms/cabins and females are not allowed in male rooms/cabins.
9. Respect others rights of rest by keeping to the sleep schedule.
10. Jesus told us, "A new command I give: love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another." John 13:34. Let this be a guide for our living during camp.
11. Enjoy yourself and have a great week!
