P. Church in Valrico, FL and Christ C. P. Church in Lutz, FL.

I have spoken to many representatives of churches in the presbytery requesting possible dates for me to make presentations to their church and/or groups and have been unable to get responses and set dates in stone. The Personnel Committee is very supportive and promote planned giving in the presbytery assuring churches that I am available and willing to share with groups and/or entire congregations. This program is a vital part of your church's future. If your church is not listed above, please give serious consideration to having this presentation to your congregation soon.

Since being named Planned Giving Coordinator, I have traveled 17,848 miles and presented to 1,132 persons in 31 churches in Tennessee, Georgia, and Florida, in addition to the General Assembly Council, Camp Chilhowee Board, cluster meetings of pastors, presbyterial meetings, CPCH Board meeting, and Women's Ministry meetings.

REPORT ON 179TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
ELDER COMMISSIONER, TERRY BELLAMY
EAST TENNESSEE PRESBYTERY
MEMPHIS - JUNE 15-19, 2009

I really enjoyed my first General Assembly. I was amazed at how many of the delegates really love the C. P. Church. I attended all sessions and enjoyed the singing very much. I served on the Children's Home and Historical Foundation Committee and learned a lot about both from the interchange with the committee members and the presentation by the Executive Directors ; as well as the preparation time in making the report.

I was very encouraged by the number of responsible young people who attended as youth delegates. They seemed eager to learn about church government and seemed to be in attendance at all sessions.

I attended the Children's Home Breakfast, the Moderator's Reception at the Memphis Theological Seminary, and the Barbecue Dinner and Open House at the New C.P. Center.

I thought Dr. Barbara Holmes delivered an outstanding sermon at the Holy Communion Service on Wednesday night, and I enjoyed our new moderator, Sam Suddarth's, style and substance. The Business Sessions were most interesting and informative. I was very impressed by the passion shown by many of the Commissioners as they debated the issues. Every church member should feel good about the leadership quality of our denomination.

I gave an oral report to our congregation shortly after I returned.

I do have one suggestion. It would have been nice to have had a planned gathering of delegates from our Presbytery either before or at Assembly as I never had an opportunity to meet with any of them.

Report of Commissioner to General Assembly

To: Presbytery of E. TN in session at New Hope, Oct. 3, 2009

This was my first experience being a commissioner to General Assembly. I am thankful for the opportunity. The Higher Education Committee was the committee that I served on. I attended all the committee meetings and all meetings of Assembly.
One of the highlights of General Assembly was to see what is taking place through our global missions and to hear from some our missionaries live (through webcam) as part of our times of worship.

REPORT OF COMMISSIONER TO GENERAL ASSEMBLY

To: Presbytery of East Tennessee in session at New Hope, October 3, 2009

Thank you for the opportunity to serve as a commissioner delegate to the 179th General Assembly in Memphis, Tennessee. I served on the Committee on Judiciary and attended all meetings of the Committee and Assembly. The Assembly was made aware of the global ministries of our church and those who are serving in missionary fields. I enjoyed touring the new denominational center and give thanks to the Center Task Force for their hard work. Approximately $300,000 is still owed and people/churches are invited to still contribute.

Re: Report of Synod of the Southeast Meeting at Red Bank Church, Chattanooga on May 7, 2009

Date: September 2, 2009

Thank you for allowing me to represent the Presbytery of East Tennessee at my first Synod meeting.

The review of other presbyteries minutes was enlightening and meeting with other CP's was also very enjoyable. The meal was delicious and the hospitality by the Red Bank Church was much appreciated.

After we reviewed the financial reports for 2008 and approved the 2010 Budget, I am pleased to announce that each of the six presbyteries will be receiving $600 from the Synod's account which has had a steady balance of around $4,800 for quite a few years now.

Again, thank you for the opportunity to serve in this way.

Rev. Ronald Longmire
Stated Clerk of East Tennessee Presbytery

Report on the meeting of Synod, 2009

I attended the meeting of Synod in May of 2009 at Red Bank Church in Chattanooga, Tennessee as an elder delegate. I attended the meeting with the Reverend Dr. J. David Hester and the Reverend Ronald Longmire. We all represented the East Tennessee Presbytery.

For the Devotional, the speaker expressed his thankfulness that the Cumberland Presbyterians use a form of government whereby an elected Session helps assume the responsibilities of church operations. He gave an example where a Pastor friend of his of another denomination was experiencing great strife in a divided church because there was no authoritative body (such as a Session) to mediate disputes and promote the peace. The Pastor's only recourse was to choose a side, thereby alienating a part of his congregation.

During a very good lunch, I talked with the Corntassel representatives and learned of their building project and monetary needs.

The business meeting was short and dealt primarily with the financial report and the distribution of some excess funds, and permission for several churches to raise money.

My committee examined the minutes the Alabama/Mississippi Presbyterial meetings and found them to be in good order.

All in all, the meeting was friendly and efficient.

Lee Dollison

To Presbytery of East Tennessee at the stated meeting hosted by the New Hope Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

As one of the clergy delegates elected to represent this fine presbytery to the Synod of the Southeast meeting held at the Red Bank Cumberland Presbyterian, Chattanooga on May 7, 2009, I hereby report upon said meeting.

East Tennessee was well represented by both clergy and elder delegates who were given the opportunity to hear a soul-stirring and an uplifting message from Rev. Cliff Hudson seeking support for his candidacy for moderator to General Assembly and briefly describing how the Cumberland Presbyterian polity is being adapted by other denominations. Following the message, the delegates were served a decadent feast of barbeque sandwiches, chips and dessert that was pleasing to the stomach as well as the eye. Those assembled at the meeting then reviewed fall and spring minutes of presbytery and gave reports on the findings. The closing actions of the Synod of the Southeast determined that a portion of the Synod's finances would be redistributed back to the presbyteries.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. T. J. Malinoski

TO: Presbytery of East Tennessee
Ronald L. Longmire, Stated Clerk/Coordinator

Thank you for allowing me the privilege to attend my first Synod meeting as a delegate from the Fairview C.P. Church.

It was very interesting for me to have the opportunity to review the minutes from the other presbyteries.

I grew up attending Camp John Speer, so it pleased me that all the camps would benefit $600.00 as a result of the request made by Rev. Cliff Hudson to use part of the Synod finances as each camp would see fit. I could think of no greater cause. I am sure the camps will welcome the much needed funds.

Again thank you and May God Bless,

Sincerely,

Mrs. Robyn Murray
Elder, Fairview C.P. Church

ONE DAY CAMP

In cooperation with the Christian Education committee we are planning a □One day Camp□ for both Camp Chilhowee and Camp John Spear for the purpose of introducing our 1st and 2nd grade children to our camping program. The program is designed to introduce our children and their parents to each camp by taking them through a typical camp day. Activities will include worship, music, games, and crafts. Lunch will also be provided. We are planning this event for May, 2010

Respectfully submitted,

Camp Chilhowee Board of Directors.

To the Presbytery of East Tennessee meeting at the New Hope Cumberland Presbyterian Church on October 3, 2009:

New rates have been adopted by Camp John Speer. These include $12 per night for C.P. campers; all others, $18 per night. Donations will be accepted for picnics and day usage by members of the C.P. Churches. All others campers are to pay $5 for picnics and day usage with a $65 minimum payment. Weekly rates are available upon request. Dennis Elwell continues to be the caretaker and provides full cooking services upon request and payment. Menus are also available from him.

The committee is now considering names for the chapel. Other discussions included a music conference, a water slide, a website, and work days for camp improvements. Ralph Bowers, Greene County's Tax Assessor, is helping to sign Camp John Speer up for the Green Belt in order to hopefully lower the land taxes.

Thanks is once again extended to the Presbytery for the financial assistance and support given. Thanks also is given to the various churches and individuals for the gifts provided by those who use, support, and promote Camp John Speer. Many things have been accomplished due to this valuable support from many.

Any gifts or offerings may be directed to Stacy Bolton, 265 Chimney Top Lane, Chuckey, TN 37641. His telephone number is 423-234-0943.

For camp reservations, continue to contact Marian Shelton at 423-638-6135.

REPORT

Board of Missions

To: The Presbytery of East Tennessee in session with the New Hope Congregation, October 3, 2009:

This Board meets on a regular basis with an average of 8 of 9 members present.

Mercy Church –

As per the decision of Presbytery on April 4, 2009, the Mercy Cumberland Presbyterian Church was officially organized on August 9, 2009, with about 19 charter members. This action was taken by the Presbytery Commission named for this purpose.

Three elders were elected, ordained, and installed. Alfonso Marquez was issued a call to be pastor by the new Session; he was installed as pastor.
Following the worship service, a bounteous Mexican meal was served for all present.

Evangelism –
One of the components of the April report of this Board was to invite each church to set aside a day per week for Prayer and Fasting in the interest of evangelism.
The churches of the Presbytery were divided among the Board members and contacted about the progress in this program.

Training in Evangelism is still before us. We perceive a need for such training and are looking at such a program after Jan. 1. This would be at two venues – Greeneville and Knoxville.

Pastoral Changes
This Board is now responsible for acting on behalf of Presbytery on Pastoral changes.

- Pastoral change notices and contracts should be sent to Board Secretary, J. David Hester
- A Handbook on process for Pastoral change is being prepared

Finances –
Glenn Watts (Hong Kong) and Anay Ortega (Guatemala) came to churches of our Presbytery this summer seeking funds for their mission work.

This Board is recommending that each be given $1000 per year for 3 years ($2000 per year times 3 years = $6000) for their mission program. We will re-visit this recommendation annually.

We have asked the Board of Finance to include this initial $2000 in the 2010 budget.

We are aware of the Presbytery decision in April to turn this Board's assets over to the Presbytery Treasurer. Our treasurer will be ready for audit after Jan. 1 and, after that audit, will turn over the assets to Presbytery.

Churches – Here are reports on churches we have been working with:

- Clinch View – Church closed with worship service October, 2008. We have had appraisal, priced the property at $150,000, and given a commercial realtor a six month contract.
- Young's Chapel – The Moderator/Interim Pastor is Rev. Mark S. Hester. The Search Committee continues to work. Moderator of the General Assembly Sam Suddarth spoke on Sunday night Aug. 16.
- Pleasant Vale – The Session continues to move forward with naming a new Cemetery Association; this board has been meeting with Session and Moderator James McGuire to assist in this process.
- Korea First – Now has new pastor; Pastor Lee came from South Korea in July to take CP courses at PAS. He has a Seminary degree already. Attendance is about 30 on Sunday. Moderator is John Sweigert, a chaplain in Seoul, and member of Arkansas Presbytery.

Respectfully Submitted,

The Board of Missions
