Dear Rev. Longmire,
Please see the enclosed letter requesting a called meeting of the Presbytery of East Tennessee.

During the most recent General Assembly Meeting there were recommendations re: an "International Presbytery" that require, at worst or request at best, an answer from the PoET prior to our Fall meeting.

Proper procedure has been followed as two Members and Elders have signed the request and personally having reviewed the information they need to discuss, as Moderator I agree a called meeting is in order and, I believe, in the best interest of the PoET.

At my instruction, please announce said meeting to the members, urging their attendance as it is important to have a quorum. Location, date and time will be as requested in the aforementioned letter is the Talbott CP Church, Sunday, August 18th at 5:30 PM. Feel free to mention the requirement is notification ten (10) days prior and this notice is in excess of that.

Thank you for your help in facilitating this meeting.

Best Regards,

Jim Greene,

East Tennessee Presbytery
Board of Missions

Co-workers in Christ;

The CP Church has enjoyed a long and significant mission focus outside the USA for almost 100 years resulting in churches and presbyteries in Colombia, Hong Kong and Japan. Just in the past 15 years we have added churches in Cambodia, Guatemala, Laos, Mexico, Philippines and South Korea. The General Assembly is envisioning more church planting and expansion in other countries, in particular Central America. Over the past 10 years the Missions Ministry Team has been scrambling to keep up with this amazing growth in our mission program. Once churches were initiated in countries where we had no presbytery we were confronted with various constitutional challenges. The first solution we suggested was to ask US presbyteries to host these new churches, missionaries, pastors and probationers. This involved making presbyterial decisions for pastors, churches and probationers, though with limited contact or information with those people. In an attempt to help us understand how to make this work better the 182nd (2012) General Assembly approved guidelines for presbyteries. These guidelines, although helpful, still did not go far enough in addressing the constitutional needs that continued expansion around the world is causing. Anticipating more new missions fields in the future, we saw the potential for even greater challenges. Continuing to explore how best to expand in Central America, the Missions Ministry Team and Ministry Council presented the 183rd General Assembly (2013) another tool we can use for mission expansion, and the Assembly adopted the recommendation as follows:

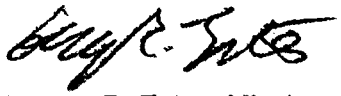

"That the General Assembly, following previously approved guidelines and in interpretation of the Constitution, sections 9.4 d, j, and m, designates the Missions Ministry Team (elected and staff members) or its successor as the agency responsible for oversight, guidance and authority for mission work and mission fields that cannot have a meaningful relationship with a presbytery due to distance and/or language. The Missions Ministry Team is authorized to conduct all actions typical in oversight of such mission work until such time as a presbytery can be formed to accommodate the mission churches, pastors and probationers. As part of its oversight, the Missions Ministry Team may, if circumstances warrant, attach mission work to an existing presbytery, with its approval, following General Assembly-approved guidelines for host presbyteries, "

Now we have a diverse and effective assortment of tools we can use for global mission expansion. We will continue to use presbyteries to host some of our mission work following the approved GA guidelines. However, we now have another option: the General Assembly via the Missions Ministry Team can now host churches, pastors and probationers where there are no presbyteries. Should a host presbytery that currently has pastors, missionaries, probationers and churches on its roll so desire, it can now transfer that mission work to the General Assembly. The General Assembly via the Missions Ministry Team will assume both guidance and constitutional responsibility. The Missions Ministry Team already has the responsibility from General Assembly to guide and oversee all our mission work. This new tool allows the Missions Ministry Team, as an agent of the General Assembly, to directly relate to the mission work it is already guiding. The reality is the Missions Ministry Team has the resources and experience, because of travel and communication abilities, to maintain contact with our mission work. The Missions Ministry Team is often the most informed agency in the Church as to what the needs are where we have churches, pastors, probationers and missionaries outside the USA.

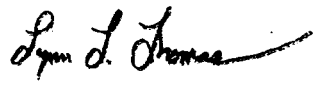

We are writing to let you know what the General Assembly has done, and also, since your presbytery hosts mission work in the Philippines and South Korea, to ask you if East Tennessee Presbytery wants to transfer the mission work you are hosting to the Missions Ministry Team. We recognize attempting to be connected and understand the work in Asia has not been easy for the presbytery. The Missions Ministry Team has been heavily involved giving guidance and leadership in both of these areas. We feel it may be advantageous for the work in these countries to be hosted by the Missions Ministry Team. We have Korean consultants whose expenses are paid by the Missions Ministry Team, some having been in South Korea in the past year to help deal with problems and concerns there. We also have made staff visits in South Korea during the past 12 months, meeting with pastors, elders and probationers, and previously in the Philippines. There are plans for staff to conduct elder training and classes on CP polity and history later this year for probationers in the Philippines.

Finally, we would be happy to meet with leadership by phone or video conference, or attend the presbytery's Board of Missions to discuss this matter at your fall meeting of the board, if desired. You decide what works best for you based on what level of conversation you feel you need. Again, we deeply appreciate the presbytery's engagement in and commitment to this mission work!

Yours in Christ,

George R. Estes, Missions Ministry Team Leader

Lynn Thomas, Director of Global Ministries, Missions Ministry Team

Safe Sanctuary

From the Ministry Council,

"The 183rd General Assembly passed that all congregations, presbyteries, synods, and denominational facilities, camps, events, etcetera have a plan to keep everyone safe. This will provide concrete ways to create a safe environment so people are safe while at the church. It also prepares facilities and gives leaders training in the event of an emergency or crisis so all people can feel safe enough to focus on their faith and experience the love of Christ through the Church. These plans must be in place by December 31, 2014"

There are many examples on the denominational website under ministry council. Below is a link to that page.

http://ministrycouncil.cumberland.org/safesanctuary

Safe Sanctuaries is a way for our churches to prepare for and prevent disasters of the natural kind and of the humankind. The goal is to establish a safe environment for our members and their children also for our volunteers and workers.

Report from Korean Council

September 16, 2013

Dear brothers and sisters in E.T Presbytery

Peace be with you

We received your e-mail through Justin Choi and we cannot hide our sadness! We heard that the Presbytery of East Tennessee transferred responsibility for all work with the Korean churches and ministerial candidates to the Missions Ministry Team of the denomination's Ministry Council.

You have been so good to us and we are so grateful for what you have done for us. We enjoyed working with you and feel so sad to let you go. However, we all know that is the best thing for Cumberland churches in S. Korea. We respect and accept your decision and we would like to follow it. We will continue to pray for E.T Presbytery and we believe that you will pray for us as well.

We will serve our Lord together in some other places and E.T Presbytery will be remaining as our sweet home forever!

We had fall Korean Council meeting on September 9th and here is our last report.

1) We elected new council leaders

Moderator: Rev. Lim, Gum Tack (Glory Church)

Stated Clerk: Rev. Ahn, Da Wi (Ye-Il Church)

treasurer : Rev. Kang, Heung Soo (First Church)

2) We be expelled Rev. Cho from Korean Council.

- We believe that you already know the reason.

3) Rev. Park from Mok-Yang Church left the Korean Council.

4) The First Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Korea will elect three elders.

Sincerely,

Korean Council

REPORT OF
COMMISSIONERS TO GENERAL ASSEMBLY to the Presbytery of East Tennessee meeting in session at
Mt. Carmel Cumberland Presbyterian Church
October 5, 2013

All of the duly elected commissioners and youth advisory delegates whose names appear below were present at the General Assembly meeting in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, June 17-20, 2013. Each participated in the general sessions of the Assembly and in committee work.

The most notable action of the Assembly affecting this presbytery was the authorization given to the Missions Ministry Team of the Ministry Council to function as an international presbytery in mission areas not yet strong enough for the organization of a presbytery. Our presbytery was called to meet in special session August 18 to transfer our involvement with the mission work in Korea and the Philippines to the Missions Ministry Team.

Enthusiasm remains high for reunification with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in America. No plan for union has yet been presented for consideration by the General Assemblies and presbyteries.

The General Assembly also reaffirmed the responsibility of the church as a whole to provide ministry to smaller and sometimes struggling congregations. More guidance in this regard from General Assembly agenices would be welcome.

Finally, we note that prebytery's nominee for General Assembly moderator, Jamie Lively, was chosen vice-moderator after coming in second in the election of the moderator.

In 2014, the Assembly will meet in Chattanooga and in 2015 in Colombia, S. A. Thank you for the privilege of representing you in this General Assembly.

Partick Kelly, minister
Jamie Lively, minister
James McGuire, minister
Holden Miller, youth delegate
Stacy Bolton, elder

To the Presbytery of East Tennessee meeting at the Mt. Carmel C.P. Church Oct. 5, 2013.

A special "Thank You" for the privilege of representing East Tennessee Presbytery as a delegate to the 183rd General Assembly meeting in Murfreesboro, TN.

A special note of appreciation for those responsible for securing the excellent facilities of the Embassy Suites and Conference Center.

I attended two of the pre-assembly workshops.

1. Set Them Free – Human Trafficking 101
2. Step Out – Helping your congregation with the "E" word: Evangelism

Both were informative and helpful.

I served on the Judiciary Committee, and though we were challenged with some controversial subjects, the committee worked diligently under the leadership of our chairperson, Nolan Scrudder.

I attended all the meetings and worship services and was blessed to have done so.

Respectfully Submitted
Rev. Ken Phillips

To: The East Tennessee Presbytery

I feel very blessed, and honored to have been able to go to the 180th General Assembly in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. I just wanted to thank you all very much for enabling me to go, and letting me participate as a youth delegate. I served on the Theological and Social Concerns committee. I learned a lot about the concerns, and thoughts that the members of the church have. I also learned a lot about the church that I didn't even know before.

This was a very great experience, and I want to thank you all so much for allowing me to participate in. It will be a experience that I'll never forget.

Sincerely,
Rachel West

Thanks to the Presbytery of East Tennessee for allowing me to serve as an Elder Commissioners on behalf of our Presbytery in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, during the 183rd General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church from June 17-21. All meetings of the convention were held at the Embassy Suites Hotel, and it was excellent in every way. I received a great blessing from the week of participation in worship, committee work, assembly business, and wonderful fellowship with other CP brothers and sisters in Christ. The Lord was greatly magnified in all worship services, in my opinion, through the theme of "Telling Your Story: Hear, Learn, Tell." Each worship service featured testimonies of faithful leaders from our denomination "telling their story." There were pastors, missionaries from around the globe, and others. The music was tremendous, especially that of the singers from Bethel University's Vocal Authority. Reverend Forrest Prosser was elected as the new Moderator with East Tennessee Presbytery's own Jamey Lively being elected as Vice Moderator for the coming year.

My assignment as an Elder Commissioner was to Committee #1 dealing with Chaplains, Missions, and Pastoral Development. It was Chaired by Rev. Shelia O'Mara and Co-Chaired by Elder Pat Meeks. We heard from several denominational representative and missionaries. I served as the Secretary for our committee and stayed quite busy until our report was finished. Additionally, I attended an excellent pre-assembly workshop on personal witnessing. It was so good that I did it twice! I also attended the Children's Home Luncheon and really enjoyed it.

Overall, I want to express my great appreciation to the Presbytery of East Tennessee for allowing me to serve this year as an Elder Commissioner. It was a pure, joyous, week-long blessing. I have served as Elder Commissioner twice before and gone to assembly multiple times. I got to serve as the CP Childrens' Home Representative to committees three or four times in the 1990's and loved it. I had forgotten how much I enjoyed it, and I plan to attend again next year in Chattanooga. Thanks again for allowing me to represent the presbytery.

T hese minutes are to be presented at the business meeting of General Assembly. I wish to thank the East Tennessee Presbytery for allowing me to be their Delegate to the 183rd General Assembly.

This was my 2nd General Assembly, but this time, I was more involved and learned more of what we as a church stand for and what we have accomplished in the last 20 years. We as a church have a great many fine young people to take our place in the future according my observations of the youth at the General Assembly. Again I thank you.

Report of the Committee on Theology and Social Concerns to the Presbytery of East Tennessee, In Session October 5, 2013
Mt. Carmel Cumberland Presbyterian Church
Coalfield, Tennessee

The Committee on Theology and Social Concerns has met regularly since our last report to presbytery in the fall of 2012. After hosting a well-received workshop on the theme of Worship in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in August of 2012, the committee has been discerning what topic we should take up next.

Our discussions over the course of several meetings have led us to feel that a general topic that the presbytery could benefit from learning more about is "How to be an effective Church in the 21st Century".

As we've considered how to best present this topic for study, we've arrived at the conclusion that this general theme may be something that we could host several workshops on in successive months or years, with each workshop focusing on a more specific way in which the churches of our presbytery can effectively do ministry in our own day and age.

In taking up this work, we're particularly hopeful that we can help historic congregations in our presbytery (i.e. churches with roots, buildings, and traditions that go back some decades, if not to the 1800s) to thrive in the new day that we find ourselves in.

For example, how do we be the Church in the age of Facebook and Twitter? Can a historic, rural church utilize such modern tools? Or, what about liability issues in the church? Are there legal issues that we need to be aware of in the 21st Century that we might not have thought about thirty years ago?

These questions, and ones like them, are the kinds of things that we hope to address as we consider how we can be God's Church in the day and age we find ourselves in.

In light of this, the Committee is planning its first workshop around this overall theme, to be held in the Spring of 2014. Our theme will be "Safe Sanctuaries and Safe Churches". We'll look at security issues in the church, liability concerns, etc.

There will be further information available at the Spring meeting of Presbytery. In the interim, please continue to pray for the work of the Committee on Theology and Social Concerns as we seek to present programming that will help our presbytery think through practical matters of being the Church.

REPORT 2 OF
THE COMMITTEE ON THE MINISTRY to the Presbytery of East Tennessee meeting with
Mt. Carmel Cumberland Presbyterian Church
Coalfield, Tennessee
October 5, 2013

Acting in good faith in the called meeting on August 18, presbytery transferred all responsibility for congregations and probationers in Korea and the Philippines to the Missions Ministry Team of the Ministry Council of the denomination. Since that date, Lynn Thomas has indicated in correspondence that the policies of the Missions Team as it functions as an international presbytery are still being defined. He and George Estes, both employees of the Ministry Council, believe that international candidates who are in the United States should be assigned to a stateside presbytery as long as they are in the States. This developing policy directly affects Licentiates Sean Choi and Ezra Choi, both of whom continue to live in this country.

The Committee on the Ministry is willing to continue its supervision of the above named licentiates, but we think action is needed by presbytery to make this supervision possible.

We recommend that, effective with the adoption of this report, the Presbytery of East Tennessee, through its Committee on the Ministry, again accept responsibility for Licentiates Sean Choi and Ezra Choi as long as they remain in the United States;

we further recommend that the Presbytery of East Tennessee communicate with the Missions Ministry Team its willingness to supervise any future candidates from international areas that the Team may wish to assign us as long as they are resident in the States.

Respectfully submitted,
Committee on the Ministry

Report # 2
Board of Missions

The Board of Missions of the Presbytery of East Tennessee, in session with the Mt. Carmel Church, Oct. 5, 2013, submits the following report:

During the Fall Presbytery meeting of 2012, the Board of Missions was given the assignment to consider whether to relate to the Mercy Church as a mission among the Hispanic community or as a congregation.

Over the past year the BOM has met with Alfonso and the Session or representatives of the session of the Mercy Church. In those meetings, both groups worked to think outside the box, pray, and come up with a way to continue this ministry to the Hispanic Community. During these meetings the following facts were taken into account:

+ Ministry to the Hispanic Community is important.

+ The relationship established with the Lenoir City PCUSA church has been a good one.

+ The services provided by the Mercy church to the Hispanic community are needed (English classes, GED classes, etc.)

+ Mercy Church, under pastor Alphonso Marquez, has developed some strong pastoral and lay leadership which should serve well as the mission continues to expand and develop.

+ The Presbytery has financially supported this mission effort for the past 14 years.

+ Considering the status of the Presbytery treasury and income, the Presbytery is not in the position to support the Mercy congregation or mission beyond the last two years of an already agreed upon descending scale ($8,000 in 2014, and $4,000 in 2015). This includes not being able to pay any salary or benefits.

+ Putting the Mercy church into the NCD model was doomed to fail because it is not the appropriate model for such a ministry (e.g., transient community cannot maintain a proper core to establish a supporting congregation).

After thoughtful prayer and consideration of the facts the following recommendations are made:

Recommendation 1 – Consider the Mercy Church and it's ministry as a mission effort.

Recommendation 2 – That the relationship of the Mercy congregation with the Lenoir City PCUSA church continue as long as tithes collected by the Mercy congregation can support the lease. If at any time the congregation cannot support the lease it will discontinue said relationship with the Lenoir City PCUSA church.

Recommendation 3 – That the Presbytery of East Tennessee completes its promised financial obligation to Mercy Church by paying $8,000 in 2014 and $4,000 in 2015 as voted by the Presbytery.

Recommendation 4 – That the paying of salary and benefits to the Pastor and/or staff of the Mercy church by the Presbytery be discontinued. That the Pastor of the Mercy church adopt the position of a tent maker and find full time employment in order to gain salary and benefits.

Recommendation 5 – That Mercy Church adopt the Biblical model of house churches and seek to reach out to the larger Hispanic community and not limit the ministry to the Lenoir City and East Loudon County area.

Recommendation 6 – The Presbytery allow Alfonso Marquez to tell the story of the Mercy mission and solicit funds for support from individuals or churches. In seeking that support Alfonso is to emphasize that this is support above and beyond their regular tithe or a church's apportionment to the Presbytery just as any other contribution to missions would be considered.

The presbytery's annual budget is allocated to the churches of the presbytery based on the active members and total church income reported in the latest Annual Congregational Report. One-half of the budget is assessed equally for each church member reported and one half is assessed equally for each dollar of church income reported. The formula used is:

Active Members x 26.295 + Church Income x 0.0183 = Annual Allocation

(1) – The 2012 Annual Congregational Report for these churches was not received by the Office of General Assembly. Their allocation is based on the latest figures on file with the Presbytery and/or General Assembly Office.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL CONCERNS

To the Presbytery of East TN meeting with Mt. Carmel C. P. Church on October 5, 2013

We the Judiciary Committee have examined the Session Records of: Mt. Carmel; Mt. Pleasant; New Bethel; New Hope; Oak Ridge; Philadelphia; Pleasant Hill; Shiloh; Talbott; Union; Virtue; Willoughby and Young's Chapel. We also examined records for Lebanon, which had not been submitted at Spring Presbytery. Please present these again at Spring Presbytery, 2014 to be back in the proper rotation. Clark's Grove also submitted their Session Records but they are not due until Spring Presbytery.

We note the following Churches failed to submit their Session Records: Casa de Fe y Alabanza; Oakland; Oliver Springs; Pilot Knob; Pleasant Vale; Salem.

We recommend that the Board of Missions contact these Churches that fail to submit their Session Records to determine whether they intend to remain Cumberland Presbyterian and abide by Cumberland Presbyterian polity.

Respectfully submitted,
Judiciary Committee
