REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS
PRESBYTERY OF EAST TENNESSEE

To the called meeting of presbytery meeting at the Knoxville First CP Church on Sunday, January 29, 2017.

1. It has been known for some time now that a congregation in the greater Boston area—Pilgrim Church in Beverly, Massachusetts—has been considering joining the Cumberland Presbyterian denomination, coming to us from the Presbyterian Church (USA). If Pilgrim were to make that transition, they would need to join the Presbytery of East Tennessee since our presbytery is closest to the Boston area (The presbytery already has one congregation in the greater Boston area, Casa de Fe). Jennifer Creamer, who became a candidate for ministry in our presbytery and was ordained as a Cumberland Presbyterian minister at the October 2015 meeting, serves on Pilgrim's leadership team.

Pilgrim's relationship with the CPC until recently has been handled through Rev. T.J. Malinoski, the CPC's Director of New Church Development. Rev. Malinoski met with Pilgrim in person in September, 2016. At that time, Rev. Malinoski felt Pilgrim was ready to become a provisional church through our presbytery—a step that would formally initiate the process of becoming a fully credentialed Cumberland Presbyterian congregation.

In order to begin that process in earnest, Rev. Malinoski asked if the BOM would send a representative with him to Boston in order to meet with the church for a question and answer session, and to report back to the Board of Missions. The hope was that the meeting would confirm that Pilgrim was ready to come under the care of presbytery. For this purpose, a meeting of presbytery was called to coincide with the Denomination Day celebration on January 29th. The BOM hoped that, if presbytery granted Pilgrim Church its provisional status, they could attend presbytery meetings in an official capacity as early as April 2017 rather than extending the process another six months. This seemed especially prudent given Pilgrim's enthusiasm about the CPC, and that the process already had gone on for over a year's time.

The Board of Missions appointed Rev. Casey Nicholson to travel to Boston as the BOM's liaison to Pilgrim Church. Rev. Nicholson met with the congregation and its leadership, and preached in morning worship on January 8, 2017. The meeting was fruitful, and Rev. Nicholson found much about Pilgrim that is to be commended.

However, the meeting did uncover several issues that the BOM believes need resolution prior to Pilgrim entering as a provisional congregation. The most fundamental of these issues is Pilgrim's current status as a union-church with another denomination, and the congregation's ongoing discernment of whether to remain affiliated with that body. It remains unclear whether Pilgrim would be joining the presbytery as a union-church or as a uniquely Cumberland Presbyterian congregation. That decision would greatly affect other details of any proposed entry into the CPC, including apportionment payments to presbytery and property ownership.

The Board feels that it is best to continue discussion with Pilgrim in hopes of resolving these issues prior to extending the invitation for provisional status. The Board has no recommendations on this matter at this time, but will report back to the presbytery at its April 2017 meeting.

The Missions Ministry Team of the denomination volunteered to pay Rev. Nicholson's expenses for his trip to Boston. The Board hopes that the presbytery, seeing the need for this meeting with the Pilgrim Church, will reimburse the Missions Ministry Team. We have talked to the presbytery's treasurer, George Mays, about the best way to cover these expenses

Recommendation 1: that the presbytery reimburse the MMT $793.17 from the overage in receipts in 2016.

2. The Union CP Church contacted the Board of Missions, requesting a commission to install Chris Caldwell as Associate Pastor of Christian Education. Presbytery approved the contract for this relationship at its last meeting in October 2016. The BOM makes the following recommendation.

Recommendation 2: that presbytery elect a commission to install Rev. Chris Caldwell as Associate Pastor of Christian Education at Union CP Church, commission consisting of Rev. Leonard Turner, Rev. Gary Hartman, Elder Bill Walton and Elder Bernie Fey, date and time of the installation to be announced at this called meeting.

3. The Board received a letter from the session of the Loudon Church in December, noting that Rev. Nick Coker had resigned as pastor. In that letter, the session asked that the pastoral relationship between Rev. Nick Coker and the congregation be dissolved.

Recommendation 3: that the pastoral relationship between Rev.Coker and the Loudon Church be dissolved, effective December 31, 2016.

The congregation also requests that Rev. Mark Hester be approved as stated supply pastor of the congregation. The Board has reviewed the contract for this part-time position, and found it good order.

Recommendation 4: that presbytery approve Rev. Hester as stated supply of Loudon Church, effective January 1, 2017.

4. The board received a letter from the session of the Clark's Grove Church, noting that they have called Rev. Nick Coker to serve as their pastor. The board reviewed the contract for this part-time position, and found it in good order.

Recommendation 5: that presbytery approve Rev. Coker as pastor of the Clark's Grove Church, effective February 5, 2017, and that presbytery elect a commission to install Rev. Nick Coker, commission consisting of Rev. Greg Tucker, Rev. Randall Mayfield , Elder Pete Carter and Elder Pam Ivens, with installation set for Sunday, February 19, 2017 at 6:00 p.m. at the Clark's Grove Church.

5. The board received a letter from the session of the Philadelphia Church, noting the resignation of Rev. Byrd Broyles. The letter included a copy of Rev. Broyles resignation. He has taken a position at Pleasant Mount CPC in Columbia Presbytery. The session asks that the pastoral relationship between the congregation and Rev. Byrd Broyles be dissolved.

Recommendation 6: that presbytery dissolve the relationship between Rev. Broyles and the Philadelphia Church, effective December 26, 2016.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. James W. Lively
Secretary, BOM

Report from Camp Chilhowee Board

To

Presbytery of East Tennessee

April 2017

The Camp Chilhowee Board of Directors met in November 2016 and Feb 2017.

We discussed concerns and recommendations from the 2016 Camp Follow-up Committee meeting. After a discussion of safety issues, we decided to place a temporary barrier between the basketball area and the adjacent rocky wooded area to prevent loose basketballs from going into the woods.

We discussed presbytery camp dates and camp use by other groups. In a cooperative effort with the Board of Christian Education we plan to hold 3 camps. A copy of the camp schedule is included with this report.

We also have plans to replace the roof on the Mess Hall. Our hope is to have the new roof installed before summer camps, however, no date has been set for installation.

We are currently looking for lifeguards to work at the camps. We request anyone that is qualified and interested contact Jim Curtis, Sharon Riggle, or Pete Carter.

Respectfully Submitted,

James Curtis,

Report of the Board of Finance

To the Presbytery of East Tennessee meeting with the Shiloh Cumberland Presbyterian Church on April 1st, 2017.

The Board of Finance submits the following:

The Board has audited the financial records of Camp Chilhowee and Camp John Speer. The records of the camps were found to be in good order and each treasurer is to be commended for their work.

In the February meeting the board authorized the treasurer to retain Adams and Plucker to conduct a review/audit of procedures related to cash, revenue, payroll, health insurance, and other expenses of the treasurer records for the presbytery.

The commercial and liability insurance policy with Church Mutual is up for renewal this year. In the past when this has been put out on bid Church Mutual has been the best option for the presbytery. The board determined that if Church Mutual could hold the coverage and the premium at the same level as in the past this would not be put out on bid this cycle. This they have done.

Recommendation 1: That a three year contract renewal of both the commercial and liability insurance with Church Mutual be approved.

The Board has prepared a preliminary 2018 budget for review. This proposed budget is based on the requests from presbytery boards and committees.

The allocation total for presbytery is not significantly different than 2017.

Allocations to the churches have not been set. The allocation is based on the Year End Report annual income and active members. The allocation to individual churches may change compared to 2017 due to reported changes in the 2016 year end reports. Please check with your treasurer and clerk to be sure those reported figures are accurate. The church allocation figures will be determined by the board at its August meeting. The individual allocation figures will then be included with the finalized budget proposal in the October preliminary minutes.

The board is working on a report showing each churches giving to the presbytery and the denominational Our United Outreach for 2016. This will be for distribution to the churches and to presbytery. The board wants to encourage each church to continue their support of presbytery and OUO.

Respectfully Submitted: Board of Finance

Removal of Members:

The COM understands that part of its responsibility is to contact ministers, licentiates, candidates and session representatives concerning their absence from meetings of Presbytery and to encourage them to participate or send an excuse when they are not able to attend. If those contacted do not respond or fail to participate in Presbytery or send an excuse, they are subject to be removed from the roll of members of Presbytery. Revised the list of candidates and licentiates and their contacts and mentors.

Rev. Don Winn was given the responsibility of contacting members of Presbytery who have not been participating and to encourage them to be active or to send a request to be absent from meetings of Presbytery.

Report Number 2:

The Committee on the Ministry to the Presbytery of East Tennessee meeting with Shiloh Cumberland Presbyterian Church

The Committe on Ministry has interviewed Mr. Andy Blackwelder who is a member of the Gass Memorial Cumberland Presbyterian Church. He is the Youth Minister at the Greeneville Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Greeneville, Tennessee. The Committe has received a letter from Gass Memorial endorsing him as a candidate for the ministry. Mr. Blackwelder has been serving the Greeneville Church for a number of years, has served in the camping program and in Presbyterial Youth ministries. He is currently attending Union Theological Seminary pursuing his Master of Divinity degree. The Committee on ministry in its February meeting voted to recommend him as a candidate for the ministry. He received permission to be excused from his weekend seminary classes to attend the Spring Meeting of Presbytery.

Recommendation: The Committee on Ministry recommends that following a satisfactory interview by Presbytery Mr. Andy Blackwelder be received as a candidate for the ministry.

Board of Missions Report

L

To: The Presbytery of East Tennessee, meeting with the Shiloh Cumberland Presbyterian Church, April 1, 2017.

The Board of Missions met on Tuesday, February 21, 2016, 6:00 p.m. at the Talbott Cumberland Presbyterian Church and submits the following report:

Pilgrim Church: The board addressed the request from Pilgrim Church in Boston, Massachusetts, to become a provisional congregation. Currently, the congregation has affiliation with both the PC(USA) and the Conservative Congregational Christian Conference. We share the following discoveries from a recent video conference with two of their staff, Rev. Jennifer Creamer and Rev. Valerie Crisman:

- The congregation plans to remain a union church with the CCCC because of its original ties to that group. They do not anticipate this status changing after becoming Cumberland Presbyterian. They are hoping that the presbytery will require only 50% of their apportionment because of their dual affiliations. (We shared with them our understanding that the Missions Ministry Team of the denomination would help with their travel expense to presbytery while they are in provisional status).
- If someone in the congregation were to respond to a call to ministry, he or she would follow the ordination process of that organization in which he or she felt called to serve, either the CPC or the CCCC. No one assumes an ordination in one body would be recognized automatically by the other body.
- Currently, the church governs itself much like a Presbyterian congregation, with a board of elders that meets monthly to oversee the life of the church and a congregational meeting annually, or if needed otherwise for the purposes of voting.
- The congregation's current by-laws state that if a conflict arises between the CCCC's policy and Presbyterian policy, the congregation follows the strictest policy.
- The congregation has chosen to pursue CP membership after being led through a study of three Presbyterian bodies. Everyone in the congregation was invited to participate in that study. Michael Qualls spent a weekend there teaching about the CP church, and leadership has studied the Confession of Faith. However, since leadership has changed over time, Jennifer and Valerie believe more study is needed.
- After noting some differences between the CP Constitution and their by-laws, Alfonso Marquez asked if they would be willing to make adjustments to match CP government (Example: Pilgrim has an age requirement of 16 to be a member, which our constitution does not have.) The two pastors assumed that reviewing their by-laws would be part of the provisional process.
- The property used by the church has a stipulation that it return to the original owner if and when it is no longer used to house a church or a Christian ministry.

Jennifer and Valerie noted this was not an issue for the denomination they were leaving, the PC(USA).

- Jennifer and Valerie asked how committed the denomination was to forming a presbytery in the Boston area. We shared that the denomination would hope for that, but only when at least three congregations were viable in the area and strong enough to support a presbytery.

Recommendation 1: that the Pilgrim Church be received as a provisional church, upon the favorable vote of their board of elders on March 5, 2017, and upon receipt of their official application.

The board also voted to develop a plan of assimilation with Casey Nicholson as the point person on that project.

Faith Fellowship: The board has received a report from Faith Fellowship Church related to their plan for revitalization. The report includes information related to budgets for the next three years, current and new initiatives for evangelism, and growth projections. Their report is thorough and thoughtful, exactly as the presbytery required of them. The pastoral and lay leadership of Faith Fellowship have been cooperative and diligent in their work. The Board of Missions commends them for their hard work and timely reporting.

2018 is the last year of the presbytery's pledged financial support for Faith Fellowship.

Casa de Fey: the board received 3rd and 4th quarter reports from the congregation in Boston and found them in good order. We note that the congregation may have to use their savings to cover regular operating expenses since the decline in presbyterial support. Mercy Church in Lenoir City suffered another break in and loss of computer equipment. They hope to include their reports to the BOM before presbytery meets.

Philadelphia: The board received a letter from the Philadelphia session, noting that they had called Rev. Ron Pickard to serve as interim pastor. They also sent a signed contract for this part-time position, in which Ron also will serve as their moderator. Having found the contract in good order, the board makes the following recommendation.

Recommendation 2: that presbytery approve Rev. Ron Pickard as interim pastor at Philadelphia, effective February 19, 2017.

Moderators: The board reviewed moderators for churches without pastors. Clark's Grove, now served by Rev. Nick Coker, and Philadelphia were removed from the list.

Bethesda—Tammy Green, Moderator (No current pastor)
Cedar Hill— Jim Carter, Moderator (No current pastor)
Dover—Jerry Scott, Moderator (No current pastor)
Oakland—James McGuire, Moderator (Sam Smith, United Methodist)
Pilot Knob—Howard Shipley, Moderator (Richard Snowden, Lay Preacher filling pulpit)
Pleasant Vale--James McGuire, Moderator (Chris Baines, Free Will Baptist filling pulpit)
Salem—Chris Franklin, Moderator (Billy Moore; Free Will Baptist filling pulpit)
Talbott—Howard Shipley, Moderator (Richard Snowden, Lay Preacher filling pulpit)

Budget for 2018: The BOM makes the following requests for 2018. At its fall meeting in 2017, the presbytery added $8,000 to the BOM in support of Mercy Church in Lenoir City. Since the presbytery was willing to continue financial support for this congregation, the BOM also included the same amount in its 2018 budget.

	2018	2017
Travel and board expense	400	400
Boston Church – travel to presbytery	2500	2500
Boston Church – pastoral assistance	-0-	-0-
Mercy Church – pastoral assistance	8000	8000
Faith Fellowship revitalization	40000	45000
Promising Futures	-0-	5000
	50900	60900

The BOM officers are Alfonso Marquez (chair), Casey Nicholson (vice-chair) and James Lively (secretary).

Respectfully submitted,

Secretary James W. Lively

*GATHERING SONG #291 "Sweet, Sweet Spirit"

*CALL TO WORSHIP (responsive)

Lent is a homecoming.
Home from weary years, home to calm our fears,
home to dry our tears.
Lent is a homecoming,
Home to a hopeful place, home to a kingdom where Christ reigns.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

O God, we confess that we would like the road map of our life laid out before us. We want to know where we are going.
Any unexpected twists and turns trouble us.
When we hear You calling us to a task we do not want to do or a road we do not want to take, we argue and come up with excuses why we cannot.
Forgive the rationalizations we present to you as reasons, the resistance that is usually grounded in selfishness, fear, and unbelief.
Forgive us all that is past, and free us to a new and living faith in You, through Christ our Risen Lord. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

In God's love, there is hope. In Christ's passion, there is the chance to begin again. In the Spirit's power, we are renewed and brought forth into life!

GOD SPEAKS

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (responsive)

Speak Lord for Your servant is listening.

Speak Lord for Your servant is listening. Amen.

He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge
