Report from the Board of Christian Education

Board has met two times since the October 6, 2018 stated meeting of Presbytery.

Pete Carter was elected Chairperson and Roger Thornburg was elected Secretary for the Board of Christian Education for the 2019 year.

The Board of Christian Education reviewed and updated the Camp/Retreat Director manual. Planning and communication for events will be coordinated by the Part Time Presbyterial Youth and Children's Director. The Part-Time Presbyterial Youth and Children's Director will be the contact person for Safe Sanctuary approval forms and will collect and maintain reports and records for events during the 2019 retreat and camping season.

The guidelines for applying for the Bethel University Scholarship have been distributed to all congregations. Encourage students to apply for this scholarship if they plan to attend Bethel University.

The Presbyterian Youth Triennium will be July 16 thru 20, 2019. Presbytery will provide transportation and partial scholarships to cover registration costs for all youth and leaders from the presbytery who attend.

The Board of Christian Education set the registration fee for retreats during 2019 at $75.00 for a two-day event.

The preferred method of pre-registration for retreats, camps and denominational events sponsored by the presbytery will be through the youth and children activities website. Dates, program details and registration information for the events will be available at: https://cpceasttnyouthchildren.com/ throughout the year as planning and program development is completed.

Planning is underway for presbytery sponsored adult events.

The Board of Christian Education

Report of the Camp John Speer Board

to the Presbytery of East Tennessee meeting in session at Virtue Cumberland Presbyterian Church
April 6, 2019

The Camp John Speer Board has met one time since the fall meeting of presbytery on 1/6/2019.

Thank You to Nolachuckey Regional CP Women who held a silent auction at their fall meeting and raised $1,100 to go towards the purchase and installation of a washer and dryer. The washer and dryer will be placed at Fort Plenty.

Thank you to all who supported the camp by purchasing items in the Annual Fresh Fraser Fir Fundraiser.

Thank you to the Greeneville CP Church who held a work day at camp 9/2018 and accomplished a lot of tree/brush trimming and cleanup.

Camp Caretaker Dennis Elwell told the board at their January meeting that he would be retiring at the end of this camping season. We deeply appreciate the work and dedication to the camp and the camping program that Dennis and his wife Ruth have given to the Presbytery of East Tennessee for 19 years since 2001. We will be taking applications for a new caretaker later this year.

We have applied for a grant from the Mary Gertrude Fox Foundation for an AED for camp. We will be notified in April if we were selected to receive the grant.

Financial Report

- The camp had an ending balance in all accounts for 12/31/18 of $15,461.02, with a net loss for 2018 of $2,132.25 due to a decrease in church and individual gifts and an increase in electricity costs.

- New refrigerator was purchased for the caretaker's cottage
- New power washer purchased
- 1 Year old stack washer & dryer purchased

REPORT FROM THE PRESBYTERY TREASURER

To the Presbytery of East Tennessee
Meeting in Session with the Virtue Cumberland Presbyterian Church
April 6, 2019

The treasurer submits the following 2018 year-end financial summaries: (1) Account Balances, (2) Church Giving, (4) Budget Spending, (4) Presbytery General Account Transaction Summary, and (5) Board of Christian Education Account Transaction Summary.

The stated clerk and treasurer for each congregation are encouraged to carefully check the figures listed for '2018 Active Church Members' and '2018 Total Church Income' in the last two columns of the table on the second page of this report. Please notify the treasurer immediately if you spot an error in the numbers we have received for your congregation. In July, these figures will be used to calculate the 2020 Congregational Apportionment for your church. It is much easier to correct an error now than later when the payment amount has been calculated.

Board of Missions Report #1

G

To: The Presbytery of East Tennessee, meeting with the Virtue Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Saturday, April 6, 2019.

The Board of Missions met on Tuesday, February 12, 2019, 6:00 p.m. at the Talbott Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Current officers for the board are Casey Nicholson (chair); Alfonso Marquez (vice-chair); and Jamie Lively (secretary). The board submits the following report:

Pilgrim Church: As a provisional church, the Pilgrim congregation in Boston, Massachusetts, has complied with the board's expectations and requests: pastors and elders have been attending presbytery meetings; the session has updated the congregation's by-laws to be in line with the Constitution; and representatives of the church have met with the board as a whole and individual board members to discuss pertinent topics. Most recently, the entire session of the Pilgrim church was present at an elder training event that was led at Case de Fey in Boston, and two candidates for the ministry from Pilgrim have come before the presbytery. This meeting of presbytery marks the two year anniversary of their provisional status required by our Constitution.

The board is very pleased with the work the congregation has done to understand our denomination and assimilate into it, and we look forward to recommending that Pilgrim be enrolled as full member of our presbytery at the Fall 2019 meeting.

The congregation and its leadership likewise express their appreciation for the help the presbytery has offered in this process and for the warm welcome they have received at meetings of presbytery. Before their session votes to become a member of presbytery, they would like to hear what the General Assembly says in June 2019 related to human sexuality, church leadership and other related issues. The General Assembly's action may have bearing on Pilgrim's ultimate decision to join us. The board knew this might be the case and is grateful for Pilgrim's careful approach to joining the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, a decision that neither body should take lightly.

Walkertown: This congregation has an ongoing dispute over property rights with their originating presbytery, Holston Presbytery (PCUSA). At its October 2018 meeting, the Presbytery of East Tennessee, of which Walkertown is now a part, advised the Walkertown congregation to vacate the property and to cease their lawsuit against Holston. Following the meeting, the chair of the Board of Missions (BOM), Alfonso Marquez, sent a letter to the congregation in December, informing them of this action and offering BOM's support. After the letter had been received, Jamie Lively talked with John Long, an elder of the church, in January 2019 and learned that Walkertown had not vacated the building and was continuing its lawsuit. Elder Long was very clear that the session and the congregation were determined to pursue their case in court. Having met previously with the session at Walkertown to understand their intentions, the board has no reason to doubt Elder Long's statement. We provide these details as points of information for the presbytery.

Mercy: This past year there was a debate over the 2019 budget proposal. The Board of Missions recommended that presbytery allocate $8,000 to fund the Mercy congregation, as presbytery has done in recent years. This practice is somewhat unusual since Mercy is a full-fledged congregation with voting rights here in this presbytery. We normally expect that congregations be self-sustaining in their ministry. However, the Mercy church is a congregation which ministers to Hispanics in the Lenoir City area. The population the church serves is made up of migrant workers, and the congregation has found it hard to be self-sustaining. In years past, presbytery has chosen to treat Mercy as a mission of the presbytery, offering financial assistance so that its ministry can continue. It was in this spirit that the Board of Missions included a request for funding for Mercy in the 2019 Budget. The Board of Finance denied this request in its report, arguing that Mercy was not on a path to sustain itself.

At its October 2019 meeting, presbytery voted once again to allocate the $8,000 for 2019. At the same time, a suggestion came from the floor that the Board of Missions reach out to Rev. Johan Daza at our denomination's Missions Ministry Team to help formulate a plan so that we can resolve this dispute, and perhaps in a way that does eventually lead to Mercy's becoming a self-sustaining congregation. Since that time, the Board has been in contact with Rev. Daza and a conversation has begun on how to proceed. We hope to formulate a plan by the Fall 2019 meeting of presbytery and report back with more information at that time. We have chosen to include a request for $8,000 in the 2020 Budget Proposal, keeping in line with recent practice.

Midway Property: Dustin Click, an attorney in Greeneville and member of the Greeneville church, has informed the board that acquiring a deed for this property that was once connected to a CP Church in Midway could be an extensive and expensive endeavor. Mr. Click gave the name of someone who might do this work for us, Wayne Conduff. The board has authorized the chair, Casey Nicholson, to speak to Mr. Conduff regarding the potential cost before we decide to pursue a deed for this small parcel of land.

Moderators: The board offers the following list of moderators for congregations without pastors.

Bethesda – (Wade McAmis, UMC lay speaker, filling pulpit)
Casa de Fey – TJ Malinoski (No current pastor)
Gass Memorial – Jamie Lively, (No current pastor)
Oakland - James McGuire, (No current pastor)
Pilgrim – Casey Nicholson, (No current CP pastor)
Pilot Knob - Howard Shipley, (Richard Snowden, Lay Preacher filling pulpit)
Pleasant Vale - James McGuire, (Chris Baines, Free Will Baptist filling pulpit)
Salem - Chris Franklin, (Billy Moore, Free Will Baptist filling pulpit)
Walkertown – Casey Nicholson (Raymond Conklin, Southern Baptist filling pulpit)

The board reminds presbytery that Malinoski and Nicholson may serve as moderators through electronic means since Case de Fey and Pilgrim are in Boston. The board also authorized the chair to speak to Jim McGuire about the lack of elder leadership at Pleasant Vale and to offer our support.

The board also reminds appointed moderators to file a report to the BOM by its August 13 meeting.

Recommendation 1: that the above appointed moderators be approved.

Contract: The board reviewed the contract between Andrew Blackwelder, licentiate under the care of the committee on the ministry, and the Greeneville CP Church, who have called Andy to serve as their associate pastor of youth and children. Finding the contract to be in good order, the board makes the following recommendation.

Recommendation 2: that Presbytery approve the relationship between Andrew Blackwelder and the Greeneville church, pending his satisfactory ordination examination at this meeting of presbytery.

Referral from Arkansas Presbytery: The board considered the letter from Arkansas Presbytery referred to us at the last meeting of presbytery. The board noted that the content of the letter was constitutional changes that would restrict leadership in the church to those in heterosexual relationships or to those who abstained from sexual relations. Given that Arkansas Presbytery recently made changes to the original letter at its spring 2019 meeting that the BOM did not possess at its meeting, and given that the General Assembly appointed a task force at its last meeting in June 2018 to deal with these and related issues and to bring their recommendations back to assembly in June 2019, the board decided not to make any recommendations related to the letter from Arkansas Presbytery. The board feels it wiser to wait for the position statement on the issues related to human sexuality and life in the church that is to be presented at the 189th General Assembly in Huntsville, Alabama, before acting on any of the above issues.

Budget for 2020: The board offers the following budget for 2020 to the board of stewardship:

Travel and board expense	$650
Pilgrim church travel to presbytery	$2500
Case De Fey travel to presbytery	$2500
Mercy church pastoral assistance	$8000
Denominational symposium	$1000
Promising Futures	$8000
	$22,650

The board notes, after consulation with Josephina Sanchez, the need for funding for Promising Futures still exists and that funds for 2019 are being spent to support the general budget of the program, specifically the Sowers of Peace program in Guatemala. Also, the board hopes to send either one or two persons to the denominational symposium, which includes workshops on missions, so that the work of the presbyterial BOM might be strengthened.

Respectfully submitted,

Secretary James W. Lively

Board of Missions Report #2

To: The Presbytery of East Tennessee, meeting with the Virtue Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Saturday, April 6, 2019.

Gass Memorial Church and Its Property: The Gass Memorial Church has not been meeting at its location for two years. The four remaining active members have been worshipping with the Greeneville Cumberland Presbyterian Church and are a regular part of the congregation's life. The session and leaders of the Greeneville Church have had conversations with the elders of Gass Memorial about possible uses of the property that might be recommended to the presbytery once the church officially closes. The Greeneville session could not envision ministry that it might start at the location, but over the course of time, some leaders became aware of a ministry in Greene County that might make use of the property.

A Safe Harbor Home is a licensed non-profit corporation in Greene County that is overseen by Danny and Lily Velez, retired social workers, who are extremely energetic and devoted to Christ's mission to redeem broken lives. This non-profit currently helps victims of domestic abuse escape their circumstances and begin anew; provides two group homes for those who come out of addiction rehabilitation without a place to live; and will soon give shelter to aging homeless persons who come out of hospital care with nowhere else to go. They also lead programs that help girls in their teens to identify unhealthy relationships and to protect themselves against sexual violence. They hope to use the Gass Memorial property as a location for administration, training and worship. Worship would focus on the particular needs of those in recovery. The building will not be used for any residential services. Danny Velez has seen the property and believes it is suitable for these purposes. His board likewise has agreed to use the space if offered. It's the hope of the Board of Missions that the presbytery would be willing to lease the property to this ministry at a minimal, yet binding cost.

The board makes the following recommendations:

Recommendation 1: that the Gass Memorial Church be dissolved and its members attached to the Greeneville Church, effective May 1, 2019.

Recommendation 2: that the presbytery empower the Board of Missions to serve as its agent to execute a lease arrangement with A Safe Harbor Home for a period of two years with an option to extend the lease ten more years, following the original lease, if both parties are willing. The yearly cost of the lease will be $100. The lease will require A Safe Harbor Home to pay utilities; to maintain the buildings, grounds and driveways; to carry insurance at the current level; and any other conditions that the Board of Missions considers necessary.

(We hope to have a draft copy of the lease at this meeting of presbytery.)

Recommendation 3: that the presbytery allow the Greeneville Church to receive any remaining funds from the Gass Memorial Church, out of which the lawyer's fees for the lease will be paid, the remainder serving as a gift to the children and youth ministry of the Greeneville Church.

Respectfully submitted,

James W. Lively, secretary

Report of the Personnel Committee
To the Presbytery of East Tennessee
Meeting in Session at Virtue Cumberland Presbyterian Church
April 6, 2019

The committee met February 11, 2019, at 9:30 AM in Knoxville, Tennessee, with all members present. Also attending was Stated Clerk Rev. Ronald Longmire. Our primary business was to address the referral from presbytery regarding an assistant Stated Clerk/ engrossing clerk. We considered the purpose and scope of such a position, budget, and process for filling the position. We concluded that the primary purpose for the position is to ensure that a qualified person is prepared to serve as Stated Clerk pro tempore in the event the Stated Clerk is unavailable or unable to serve for any reason. This position may also serve as training ground for potential Stated Clerks.

We view this as an as-needed position, and as such suggest that pay would be hourly based on service. Because the job would require that the individual attend all meetings of presbytery, we feel it is reasonable to pay mileage to meetings of presbytery, even when the assistant might not be called into service.

Attached is a draft job description. We feel reasonable compensation would be $15/hour served. While we do not foresee this person working many hours, we have requested that $500 be budgeted for salary and $250 for mileage in 2020, dependent on the approval of this report by presbytery.

Recommendation I: That the attached job description for an Assistant Stated Clerk be approved.

Recommendation II: That the Personnel Committee be permitted to conduct a search for the Assistant Stated Clerk and bring a nominee for election to the October meeting of presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,
The Personnel Committee
Rev. Larry Blakeburn
Regina Stinnett
Gwen Roddye

Report of
THE COMMITTEE ON THE MINISTRY
To the Presbytery of East Tennessee meeting with Virtue Cumberland Presbyterian Church
Knoxville, Tennessee
April 6, 2019

I. Candidates Under the Care of Presbytery

A. Heidy Alecio: Heidy was examined and received as a candidate via Skype at the October meeting of Presbytery. She is an active member of Casa de Fe y Alabanza in Boston. Heidy is working to get the necessary education for ordination, working through the Denominational Missions Ministry Team.

B. Gama Belizaire: A member of Pilgrim Church, Gama Belizaire was interviewed by the committee, examined by presbytery and received as a candidate at the October 2018 meeting. He holds a Master's of Divinity degree from South Florida Bible College and Seminary and has served as an elder and church treasurer at Pilgrim Church. He is a mathematics teacher with the Boston Public schools and travels to Haiti several times a year, where he works with a mission program he co-founded, Doorway to Peace.

C. Kris Johnson: Kris is a member of the Casa de Fe y Alabanza and came under the care of Presbytery as a candidate in October 2015. She fills many leadership roles within the church, including serving as an elder and preaching about once a month. She also has opportunities to preach in other area churches, including Pilgrim Church. She serves at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in Boston as Athanasian Teaching Scholar. She plans to get the required PAS course work and any remaining ordination requirements completed as soon as possible.

D. Christopher Duncan Shelton: Duncan is an active member of the First CP Church Oak Ridge who was received as a candidate for the ministry in October 2016. He is attending Tennessee Wesleyan University, majoring in Church Vocations with an emphasis in Youth Ministry. His COM contact is Rev. Larry Blakeburn. At the April 2018 meeting of Presbytery, Duncan was granted approval to serve as part-time youth minister for Silverdale CP Church in TN/GA Presbytery.

E. Griffen Smith: Received as a candidate in October 2018, Griffen is a member of Beaver Creek CP Church. He is a senior in high school and anticipates he will attend seminary once he has completed a bachelor's degree.

F. Gina Wood: Gina was received as a candidate in October 2018. She is a member of Union CP Church, and has taught Sunday School there for over 15 years. She completed 3 ½ years at Bethel University toward a degree in education, and wants to complete her degree at Bethel via online or distance education, if possible. Following the completion of her degree, she would be open to PAS or seminary at Memphis Theological Seminary.

Please note that the committee encourages those churches who have endorsed candidates for the ministry to assist in those candidates' preparation by paying for text books when possible.

II. Licentiates Under the Care of Presbytery

Andy Blackwelder: A member of the Gass Memorial Church, Andy was licensed at the April 2018 meeting of Presbytery and completed his studies at Union Presbyterian Seminary in June 2018. He attended the Program of Alternate Studies this summer and has now completed the required CP Studies. The committee met with Andy in February and we are pleased with his preparation for the ministry. Andy is Director of Youth and Children at the Greeneville CP Church and has a call to serve as the Associate Pastor of Youth and Children at Greeneville CP Church.

Recommendation 1: that, upon his successful examination by presbytery, Andy Blackwelder be approved for ordination and installation as Associate Pastor of Youth and Children at Greeneville CP Church, to take place during worship on Sunday, April 28, and Recommendation 2: that a commission to include Rev. Jamie Lively, Rev. Abby Cole-Keller, Elder Christian Lampe, Elder George Mays and Elder Chan Humbert be appointed for the purpose of ordaining and installing Mr. Blackwelder.

III. Others

A. Ivan Alecio: The committee recommended that Mr. Alecio, a member of Casa de Fe y Alabanza in Boston, be received as a candidate at the October 2018 meeting of presbytery. Due to technical difficulties resulting in delays in connecting for the long-distance examination via Skype, Mr.Alecio was unavailable for the examination. The committee hopes that Mr. Aleico will be able to attend presbytery and to be examined in person.

B. Joseph Delva: The interview scheduled for April 2018 was postponed when winter weather caused flights from Massachusetts to be canceled. Mr. Delva is an active member of Pilgrim Church and the committee has received a letter endorsing him as a candidate for the ministry. The committee is actively pursuing an opportunity to interview him in order to bring recommendations to Presbytery.

IV. Supervision of Non-Cumberland Presbyterians serving CP Churches

In the October 2015 meeting of presbytery, the following supervision policy was adopted:

"That any ordained minister, candidate, or lay speaker who is not Cumberland Presbyterian and desires to serve a church within the Presbyterial bounds first come under the supervision of the Committee on the Ministry. The individual will be interviewed as to their suitability to minister, show proof of educational attainments, their willingness to submit to Church polity and doctrine, and submit to training regarding Cumberland Presbyterian Church history, polity and doctrine. The committee will oversee the preparation of the individual prior to any contract being agreed upon by a congregation and the individual."

It is crucial that congregations work cooperatively with the Board of Missions and Committee on the Ministry to ensure the supervision policy is enforced for the benefit of the church.

V. Elders approved to oversee the service of the Lord's Supper

For those churches being served by lay persons or non-CP ordained ministers, an ordained elder can receive presbytery approval to oversee the service of the Lord's Supper. Those wishing to be approved must contact the Committee on the Ministry to receive the necessary training and to get their request for approval included in the report to the October 2019 meeting of presbytery. Approval is for a period of one year, and must be renewed annually.

VI. Opportunities for Probationers and Ministers

Bridge Program—the generous gift of an anonymous donor, this program provides scholarships at Bethel University and Memphis Theological Seminary for 50 students preparing for the ministry each year. In addition to tuition scholarships, recipients will receive $1000.00/month during the first five years of ministry following ordination.

Mary Ann Walton Trust Awards-- Candidates, licentiates and ordained clergy who were enrolled in college or seminary for the Fall 2018 and/or are enrolled for the Spring 2019 or attended Program of Alternate Studies 2018 are eligible for consideration. Last year, $115,953.47 was awarded through the Mary Ann Walton Trust endowment. The committee has information about candidates and licentiates, but any ordained clergy who were enrolled in college, seminary or PAS classes during the specified times should contact the Committee on the Ministry for more information.

2019 Pastors' Sabbath Retreat—Pastors and family members are invited to attend one of a series of monthly pastors' retreats at Whitestone Country Inn in Kingston, Tennessee. The 3-day retreat is at no cost to the pastors. For more information, contact the Cumberland Presbyterian Denomination's Pastoral Development Team Leader Rev. Pam Phillips Burke at (901) 276-4572 or visit.cpcmc.org.

VII. Clergy Care—The committee received communication from the denomination's Pastoral Development Team regarding Rev. Wayne Brooks, who is a member of East TN Presbytery as of last fall, when he moved his letter from Cumberland Presbytery. Rev. Brooks is under hospice care and the family has experienced a financial crisis related to his medical expenses. The Pastoral Development Team was able to provide some financial assistance and our committee unanimously agreed to assist the family. While we do not have a line item for crisis care, we currently do not have a large number of probationers receiving assistance, so funds were available in our budget. We ask that Rev. Brooks and family be remembered in prayer during this difficult time. Any individuals or churches who wish to assist the family will find additional contact information in the Presbytery minutes or by contacting COM secretary Gwen Roddye at (865) 368-0308, gwenroddye@frontiernet.net.

Respectfully submitted,
The Committee on the Ministry
